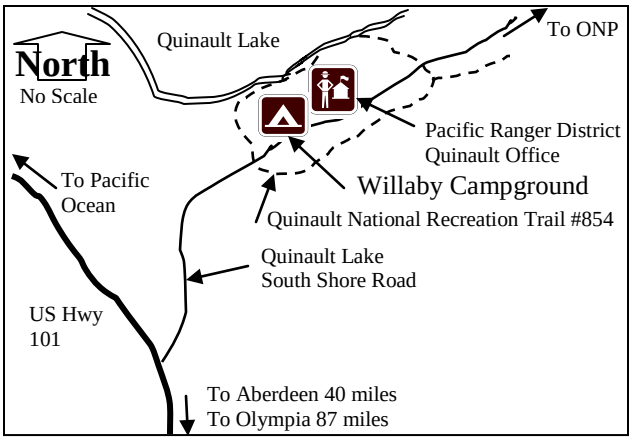
Recommended Season

SPRING SUMMER FALL WINTER

ACCESS: Travel US Highway 101 to the South Shore Road, MP 125, 40 miles north of Aberdeen and 66 miles south of Forks. Drive 1.5 miles to Willaby Campground. Entrance to campground is from the Quinault Lake South Shore Road just beyond the Quinault Rain Forest Nature Trail.



FACILITIES: The campground has potable water, a barrier-free flush toilet, and a boat ramp. There are 19 campsites that accommodate tents, trailers and RV's up to 20 feet; 2 walk-in tent sites, and 10 overflow RV sites for vehicles up to 32 feet in length.

SETTING: Willaby Campground is located on the south shore of Quinault in the beautiful temperate rain forest. Towering conifers including Sitka spruce, Douglas-fir, western hemlock and western red cedar provide dense shade for this beautiful setting. The forest floor is covered with lush rain forest plants including moss, ferns, false lily-of-the-valley and oxalis. The forested slopes of the Olympic National Park provide a scenic backdrop across the Quinault Lake.

OPPORTUNITIES: Boating, swimming and sailing are available on Quinault Lake. The Lake is part of the Quinault Indian Nation. The 7.2 mile long Colonel Bob Trail #851 provides access to the summit of Colonel Bob in the Colonel Bob Wilderness where scenic views of Quinault Lake can be enjoyed. The Quinault National Recreation Trail is a wonderful trail to see the lush vegetation of the temperate rain forest. Several trail loops provide hiking opportunities that can be accessed along the South Shore Road including Willaby Campground. A free trail map is available at FS Quinault office.

FEE: All campsites are $17 per night. There is a $7.00 charge for each extra vehicle. Day use area parking is free until 6:00 PM.

Willaby Campground is located in the Quinault temperate rain forest on the south shore of Quinault Lake.

PASS REQUIRED: A Northwest Forest Pass or a Golden Passport (Eagle, Age or Access) is required on all vehicles parked at most trailheads. $5 Day Pass & $30 Annual Pass are available at FS offices and vendors.
