El Toro Wilderness Character: A Photographic Celebration of the Legacy and History of El Yunque Wilderness Grand Opening September 29, 2014

In a great spirit of friendship, Forest Service employees from El Yunque, IITF, photographers, and partners joined toghether in the morning to install our Wilderness photo display.

Forest Supervisor Pablo Cruz opened the event with a brief history about the designation of El Toro Wilderness. Participating photographers present in event: Jose R. Burset, Maria M. Rivera Costa, Gerald Bauer, Ana Cuevas, and Victor M. Cuevas received acknowledgement for their dedicated effort in preparing great photos for this display.