Superior National Forest - Little Isabella

Description

The Little Isabella Campground is located in a grove of large red and white pines on the Little Isabella River in the central area of the Superior National Forest. There is easy access to the river which is a small stream with occasional riffles. It is stocked with brook trout. This campground is a good one if you are looking for a quiet spot in the woods that is easy to access without the numbers of people that might be in a larger campground.
