

Chapter 4 The List of Preparers

The following are the members of the interdisciplinary team for the Millville Peak/Logan Peak Road Relocation Project environmental analysis.

Contributor	Education/Experience	Contribution
Steve Blatt Wildlife Biologist, Logan & Ogden Ranger Districts	B.S. Wildlife Management, 16 years experience in wildlife management	Wildlife Resources
Paul Chase Fisheries Biologist, Logan & Ogden Ranger Districts	B.S., M.S. Fisheries and Wildlife Management, 7 years experience as a fisheries biologist	Aquatic Resources
Mike Duncan Botanist, WCNF Supervisor's Office	9 years experience with the Forest Service	Rare Plants and Noxious Weeds
Tom Flanigan Heritage Program Manager WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.A., M.A. Anthropology, 4 years experience with the Forest Service	Heritage Resources
Paul Flood Soil Scientist, WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.S. Soil Science, 29 years experience with the Forest Service	Soil and Watershed
Jim Gibson Forest Silviculturist, WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.S. Forest Management Science, 18 years experience with the Forest Service	Vegetation
Molly Hanson Hydrologist, WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.A. Resource Conservation, M.S. Geography, 6 years experience with the Forest Service	Hydrology and Watershed
David Hatch Landscape Architect, WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.L.A. in Landscape Architecture Environmental Planning, 14 years experience in the Forest Service	Scenery Management System
Oscar Mena Civil Engineer, WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.S. Civil Engineering, 7 years experience with the Forest Service	Roads Analysis
Evelyn Sibbernsen Forester, Logan Ranger District	B.S. Resource Conservation, M.S. Forest Management, 28 years experience with the Forest Service	NEPA Coordinator
Darcy Stock GIS Specialist, WCNF Supervisor's Office	B.S. Natural Resources/ Geography, 5 years of experience with the Forest Service	Geographic Information System
Ronald Vance Recreation Resource Manager, Logan Ranger District	B.A. Psychology, M.A. Landscape Architecture, 9 years experience with the Forest Service	Recreation