

APPENDIX F – Biological Assessment

The Biological Assessment is only completed on the selected alternative. The Forest Supervisor will select the preferred alternative after comments from the draft EIS are received and reviewed. The Biological Assessment will be submitted to the US Fish and Wildlife Service and their recommendation will be included in the final EIS.