

TRAILS
MAZATZAL WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 240 miles of “system” trails serving the Mazatzal Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Red Hills Trail 262: 8.6 miles in length. Scenic vistas. Parts are steep and some sections may be difficult to follow. Goes into a little-visited area, climbing in and out of several drainages. Elevation: 2,820 - 6,280 feet. Termini: Trail 23, and Trail 22 (near Dutchman Grave Spr.).

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
