

TRAILS
SUPERSTITION WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 170 miles of “system” trails serving the Superstition Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Paradise Trail 271: 2.5 miles long. Passes through wild little-visited country in the southeast corner of the Wilderness. Elevation: 3,410 - 4,880 feet. Termini: Forest Road 287A just east of Miles TH, and Trial 203.

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
