

TRAILS
SUPERSTITION WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 170 miles of “system” trails serving the Superstition Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Rogers Canyon Trail 110: 4.5 miles long. A scenic trail with a lot of creek crossings. Portions are steep and not recommended for horses. The segment in Rogers Canyons is subject to heavy flood damage. Elevation: 3,680 - 4,600 feet. Termini: Trail 109, and Trail 106 at Tortilla Pass.

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
