

Chapter 4

Consultation and Coordination

CHAPTER 4 – CONSULTATION AND COORDINATION

Introduction

This chapter provides the list of preparers that contributed to the analysis and were consulted during the preparation and development of this environmental impact statement. A listing of agencies, organizations, and people that received the scoping letter and the draft environmental impact statement is also included.

A glossary of terms, references, and index is also included in this chapter.

List of Preparers

Interdisciplinary Team (IDT) members

Bryan Scholz – IDT Leader, Fuels Planner
Barbara J. Fontaine – Certified Silviculturist / Logging Systems
Dede Steele – District Wildlife Biologist
Jim Seymour – District Hydrologist
Rodd Kubitz Transportation Planner
Gayle Hammond - District Transportation Planner
Barb Franano – District Fisheries Biologist
Barb Smith – District Recreation Specialist
Janet Schlosser – Writer/Editor
Gery Ferguson - Writer/Editor

Additional Contributors

Mark Lesko – District Botanist and Noxious Weed Manager
Terry Holtzapple – District Archaeologist
Jim David – Forest Soils Specialist
Mark Goertel – District Range Conservationist
Bruce Wright – Geographic Information System Specialist / Analyst
Caroline Gordon – Forest Geologist
Paul Cuddy – Ochoco Forest Environmental Coordinator / Social - Economic Scientist

BRYAN SCHOLZ has an A.S. degree in Forestry, an A.S. degree in Wildfire Science, and is a graduate of Technical Fire Management through Colorado State University. He is an Assistant Fire Management Officer in the fuels management program on the Crooked River National Grassland and the Lookout Mountain Ranger District of the Ochoco National Forest. He has 20 years of government employment with fire and fuels management with the Forest Service.

BARBARA J. FONTAINE has a B.S. degree in Forest Management from Oregon State University. She became a certified silviculturist after completing studies in the Silviculture Institute (Oregon State University and University of Washington). Her experience includes project planning, timber sale planning, preparation and appraisal, timber stand improvement and reforestation program management, and silvicultural prescriptions preparation. She has been observing growth and development of local forest stands for 28 years, and has been a Silviculturist on the Lookout Mountain Ranger District, Ochoco National Forest, for 11 years.

DEDE STEELE has a B.S. degree in Wildlife Science and a B.S degree in Rangeland Resources from Oregon State University. Her experience includes 21 years of government service working for the Willamette, Ochoco and Deschutes National Forests and for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. She has worked as a District and Forest level Biologist, as an interdisciplinary resource planner, and as a Service Biologist. She is currently a District Wildlife Biologist on the Lookout Mountain Ranger District, Ochoco National Forest.

JIM SEYMOUR has a B.S from Colorado State University in Watershed Science with a concentration in Hydrology. His experience includes 24 years of government service as a hydrologist working on the Deerlodge National Forest in Montana, the Olympic National Forest in Washington and is currently on the Lookout Mountain Ranger District, Ochoco National Forest.

GAYLE HAMMOND has an A.S. degree in Engineering Technology from Linn-Benton Community College. She has been with the Forest Service 23 years working for the Malheur, Siskiyou, and Wallowa-Whitman National Forests as an engineering technician. Her experience includes planning, location, survey and design, contract preparation and administration of roads and recreation sites. She is currently the road manager and transportation planner for the Lookout Mountain Ranger District, Ochoco National Forest.

BARBARA FRANANO has B.S. and M.S. degrees in Biology (fish and wildlife emphasis) from West Texas State University in Canyon, Texas. Her experience includes 23 years of government service working for the Wasatch-Cache, Uinta, and Ochoco National Forests, U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, and the Division of Wildlife Resources in Utah. She has worked as a fisheries and wildlife biologist and as a program manager for special uses. For the last 5-1/2 years, she has been the Fisheries Biologist for the Lookout Mountain Ranger District and Crooked River National Grassland, Ochoco National Forest.

GERY FERGUSON has a B.S degree in Wildlife Management from Michigan State University, with a secondary emphasis in Forestry. Her experience includes 23 years of government service working for the Deschutes, Umpqua, and Colville National Forests. She has worked as a reforestation and timber stand improvement technician, presale forester, wildlife biologist, planner, assistant forest planner, litigation and appeals specialist, and environmental coordinator. She is currently on temporary detail to the Lookout Mountain Ranger District, Ochoco National Forest as their District Environmental Coordinator.

List of Agencies, Organizations, and Persons Consulted

Agencies, Organizations, and Persons sent the February 6, 2003 scoping letter

Asante Riverwind, League of Wilderness Defenders / Blue Mountains Biodiversity Project	Scott Hoefler, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Fisheries (used to be named National Marine Fisheries Service)
Bob Friemark, The Wilderness Society	Erik Ryberg
Tim Lillebo, Oregon Natural Resources Council	Diane Bohle, Prineville / Crook County Chamber of Commerce
Charles Burley, American Forest Resource Council	Vance Tong, Central Oregonian
Rachel Odell, The Bend Bulletin	Marilyn Miller, Sierra Club, Juniper Group
Brett Hodgson, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife	Scott MacCaulou, Deschutes Resources Conservancy
Tom Raglan, Survival Center	Scott Salmon
John Morgan, Ochoco Lumber Company	Bob Mullong
Marc Albert, Natural Resources Defense Council	Gerald Keck, D.R.Johnson Lumber Company
Aubrey Russell, Oregon Trout Unlimited	Oregon Hunters Association
Skip Damewood, Aspen Valley Ranch	S.J. and Jessie E. Quincy, Natural Resources Research Library
Susan Jane M. Brown, Northwest Environmental Defense Center	Scott Cooper, Crook County Judge
Brian Bird, Forest Conservation Council	Jim Wood
Jeff Dillon, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service	William McCormack, McCormack and Sons

Tribes Consulted

Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation
The Burns Paiute
The Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation
The Klamath Tribes

Agencies, Organizations, and Persons receiving the Draft EIS

Asante Riverwind, League of Wilderness
Defenders / Blue Mountains Biodiversity
Project
Bob Friemark, The Wilderness Society
Tim Lillebo, Oregon Natural Resources
Council
Charles Burley, American Forest Resource
Council
The Bend Bulletin
Brett Hodgson, Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
Tom Raglan, Survival Center
John Morgan, Ochoco Lumber Company
Marc Albert, Natural Resources Defense
Council
Aubrey Russell, Oregon Trout Unlimited
Skip Damewood, Aspen Valley Ranch
Susan Jane M. Brown, Northwest
Environmental Defense Center
Brian Bird, Forest Conservation Council
Jeff Dillon, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
Scott Hoefler, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Fisheries

Erik Ryberg
Diane Bohle, Prineville / Crook County
Chamber of Commerce
Vance Tong, Central Oregonian
George Wilson, Sierra Club, Juniper Group
Scott MacCaulou, Deschutes Resources
Conservancy
Scott Salmon
Bob Mullong
Gerald Keck, D.R. Johnson Lumber Company
Dan Bishop, D.R. Johnson Lumber Company
Oregon Hunters Association
S.J. and Jessie E. Quincy, Natural Resources
Research Library
Scott Cooper, Crook County Judge
Jim Wood
William McCormack, McCormack and Sons
C.G. Spies
Lisa Blanton, The PROWL Project
Barbara Sachau
Billie Ream

Tribes Receiving Draft EIS

Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation
The Burns Paiute
The Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation
The Klamath Tribes

