

Figure 2-2
Chippewa National Forest
Forest Plan Revision
Final EIS Alternatives

Management Areas

General Forest
General Forest-Longer Rotation
Recreation Use in a Scenic Landscape
Eligible Scenic River
Semi-primitive Motorized Recreation
Semi-primitive Motorized & Non-motorized Recreation
Semi-primitive Non-motorized Recreation
Unique Biological, Aquatic, Geologic, or Historical Areas
Special Management Complexes
Minimum Management Natural Areas
Riparian Emphasis Areas
Experimental Forest
Existing Research Natural Areas
Proposed Research Natural Areas
Wilderness Study Areas
Lakes Greater than 400 Acres

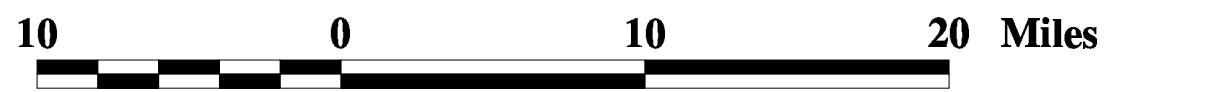

The Forest Service uses the most current and complete data available. Geographical Information System (GIS) data and product accuracy may vary from map to map. Data and maps may be developed from sources of differing accuracy, accurate only at certain scales, based on modeling or interpretation.

The Forest Service reserves the right to correct, update, modify, or replace GIS products without notification. The Forest Service will not be liable for any activity involving this information. This map shows all ownerships by the Forest Service.

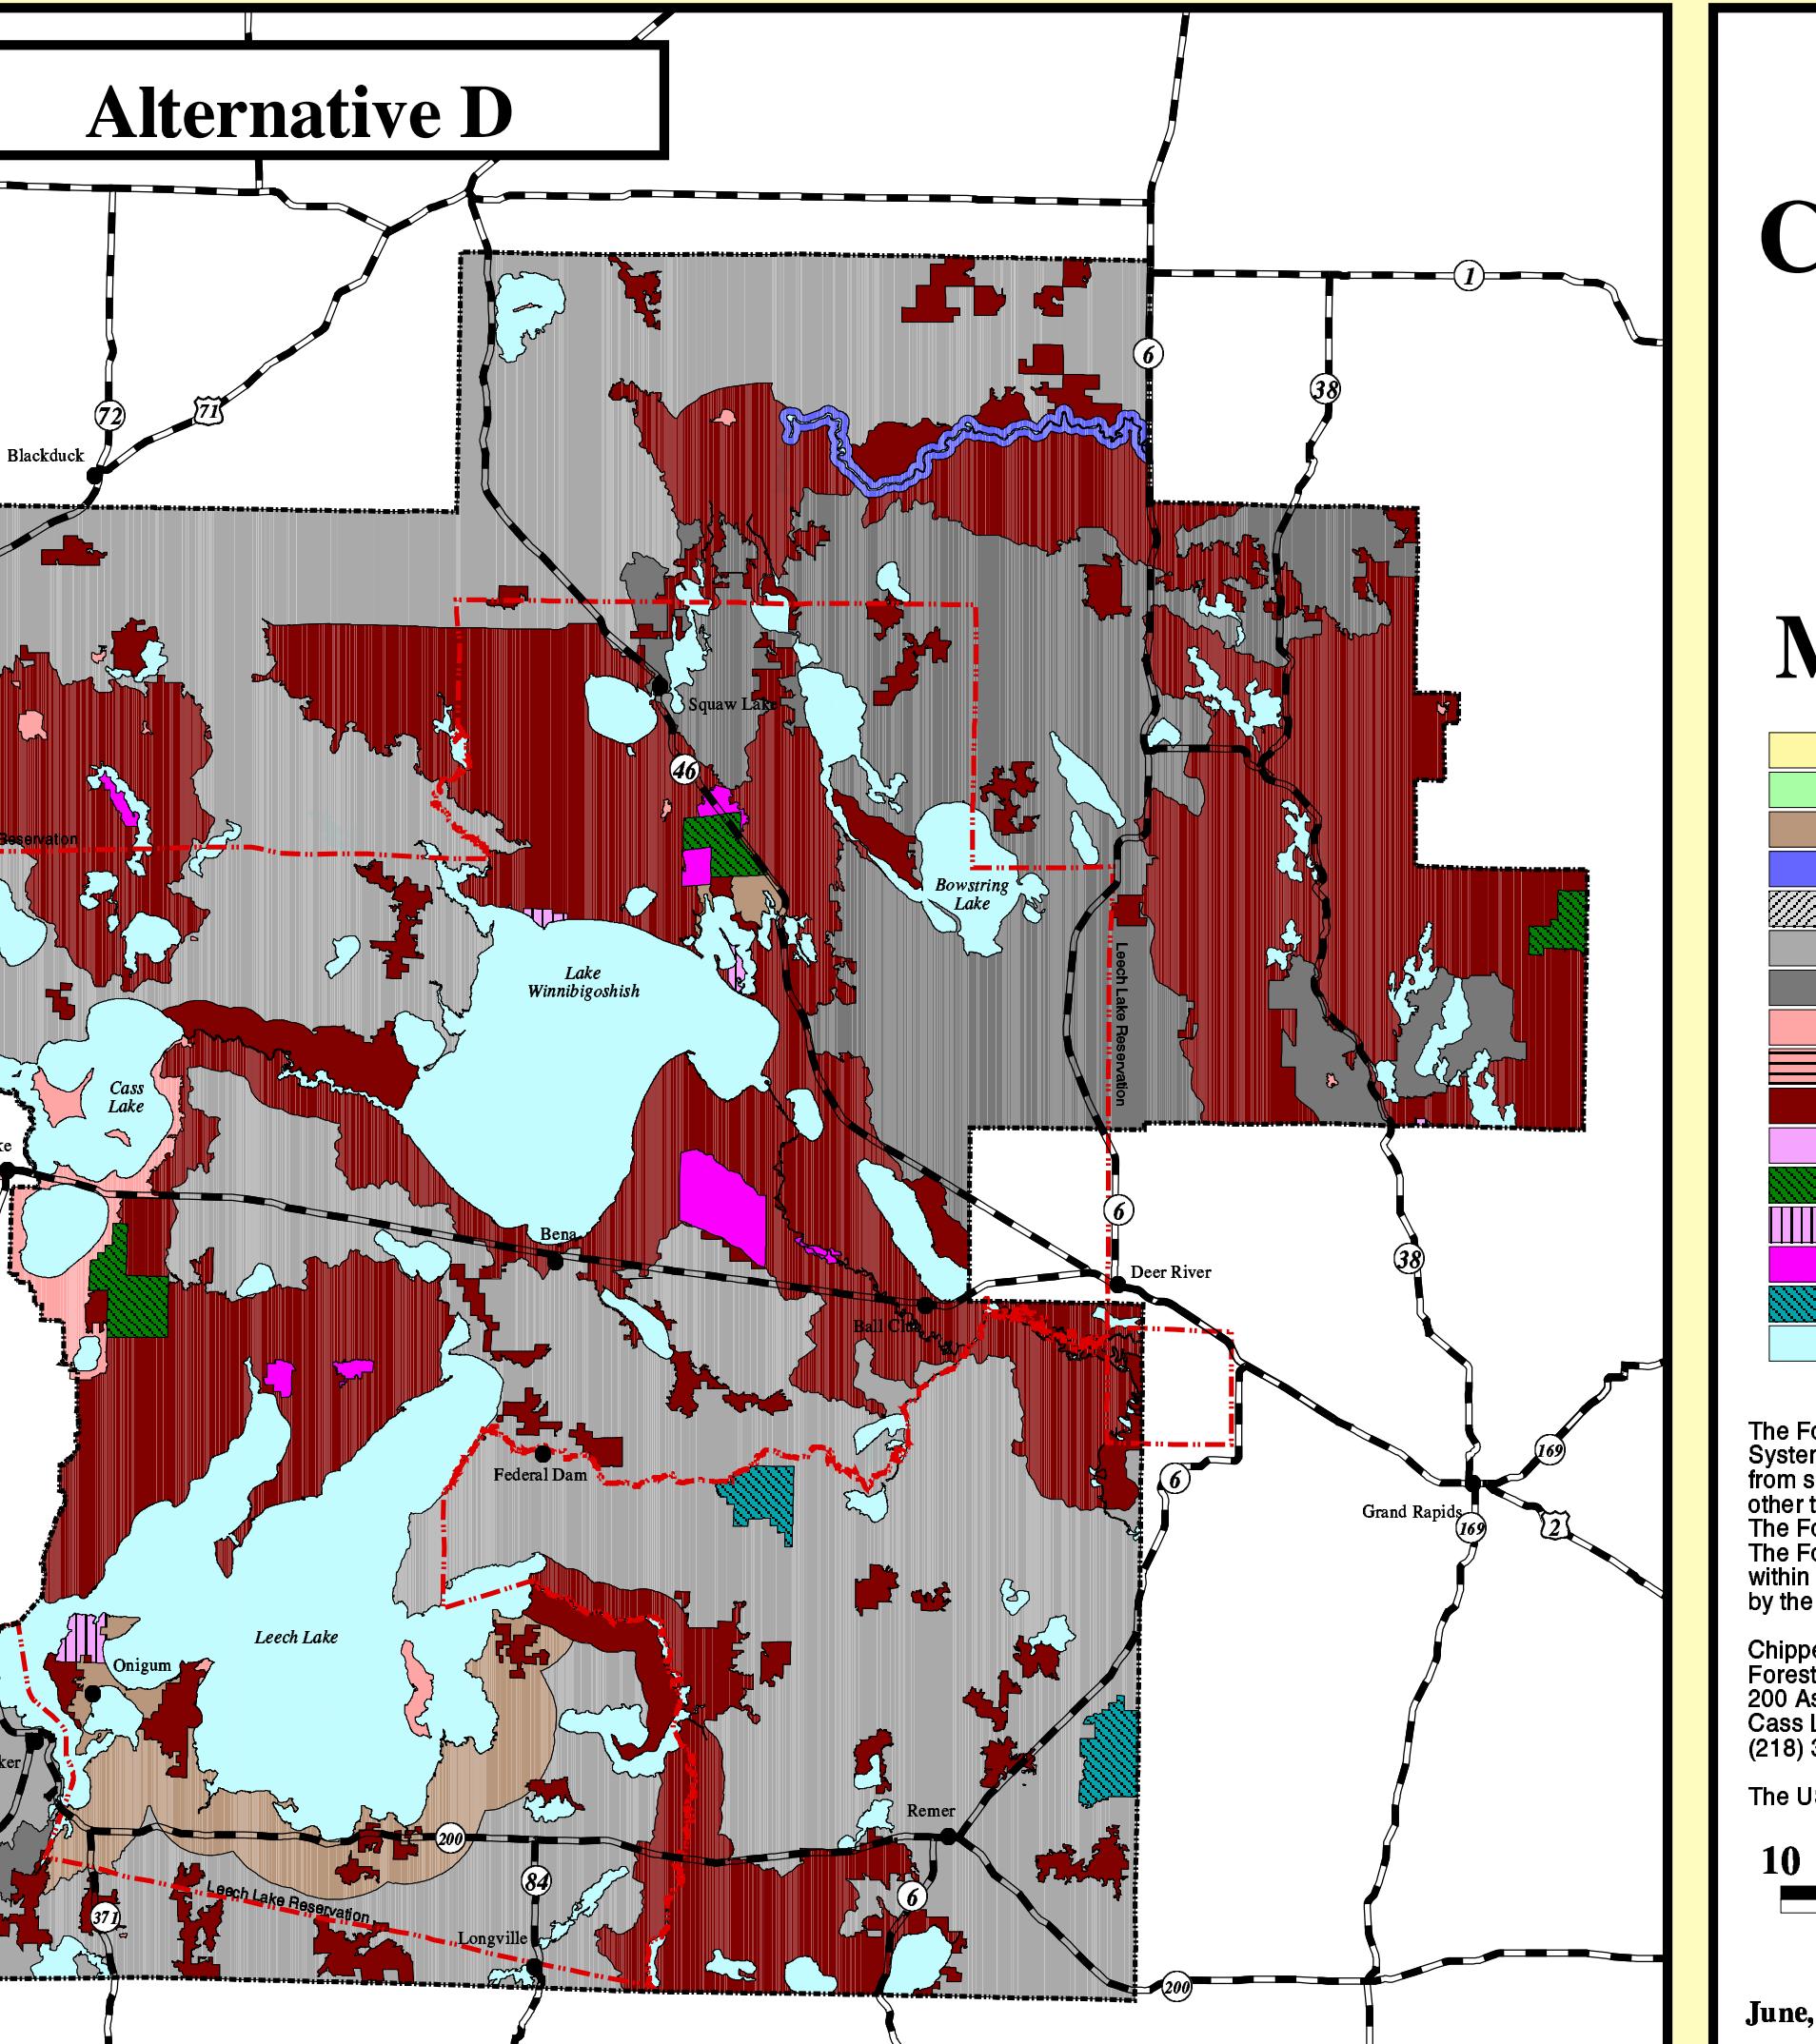

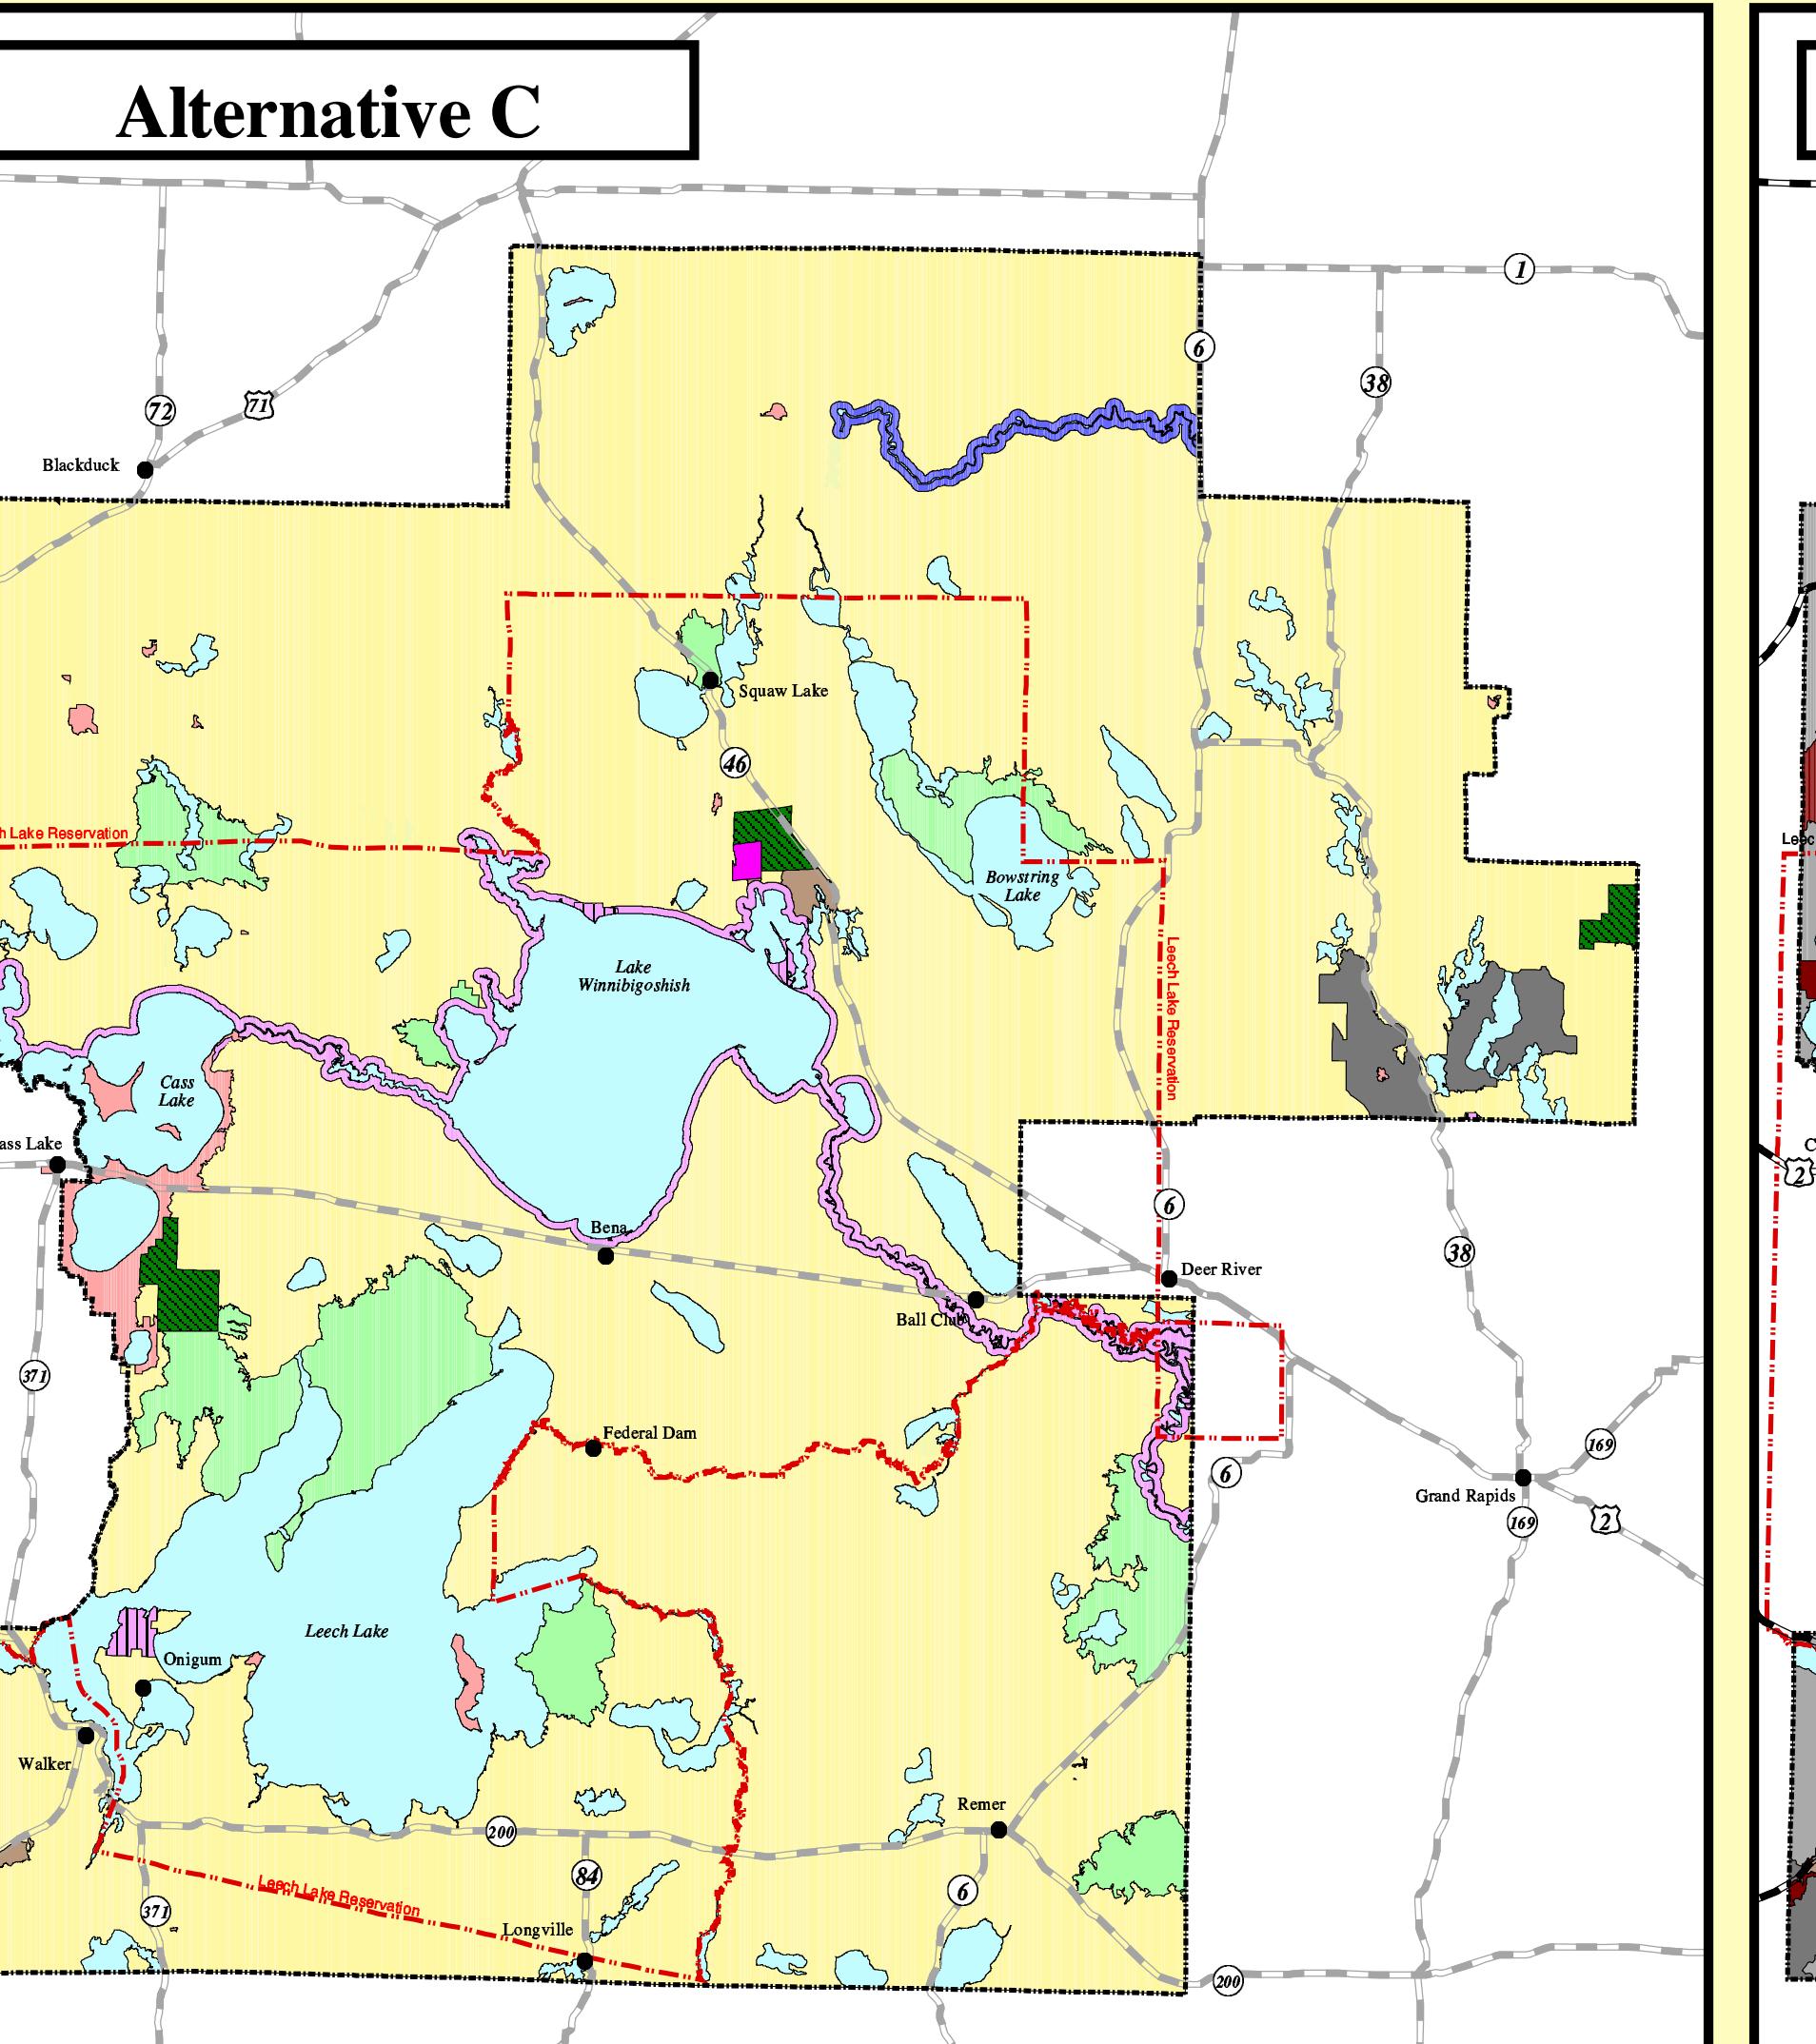

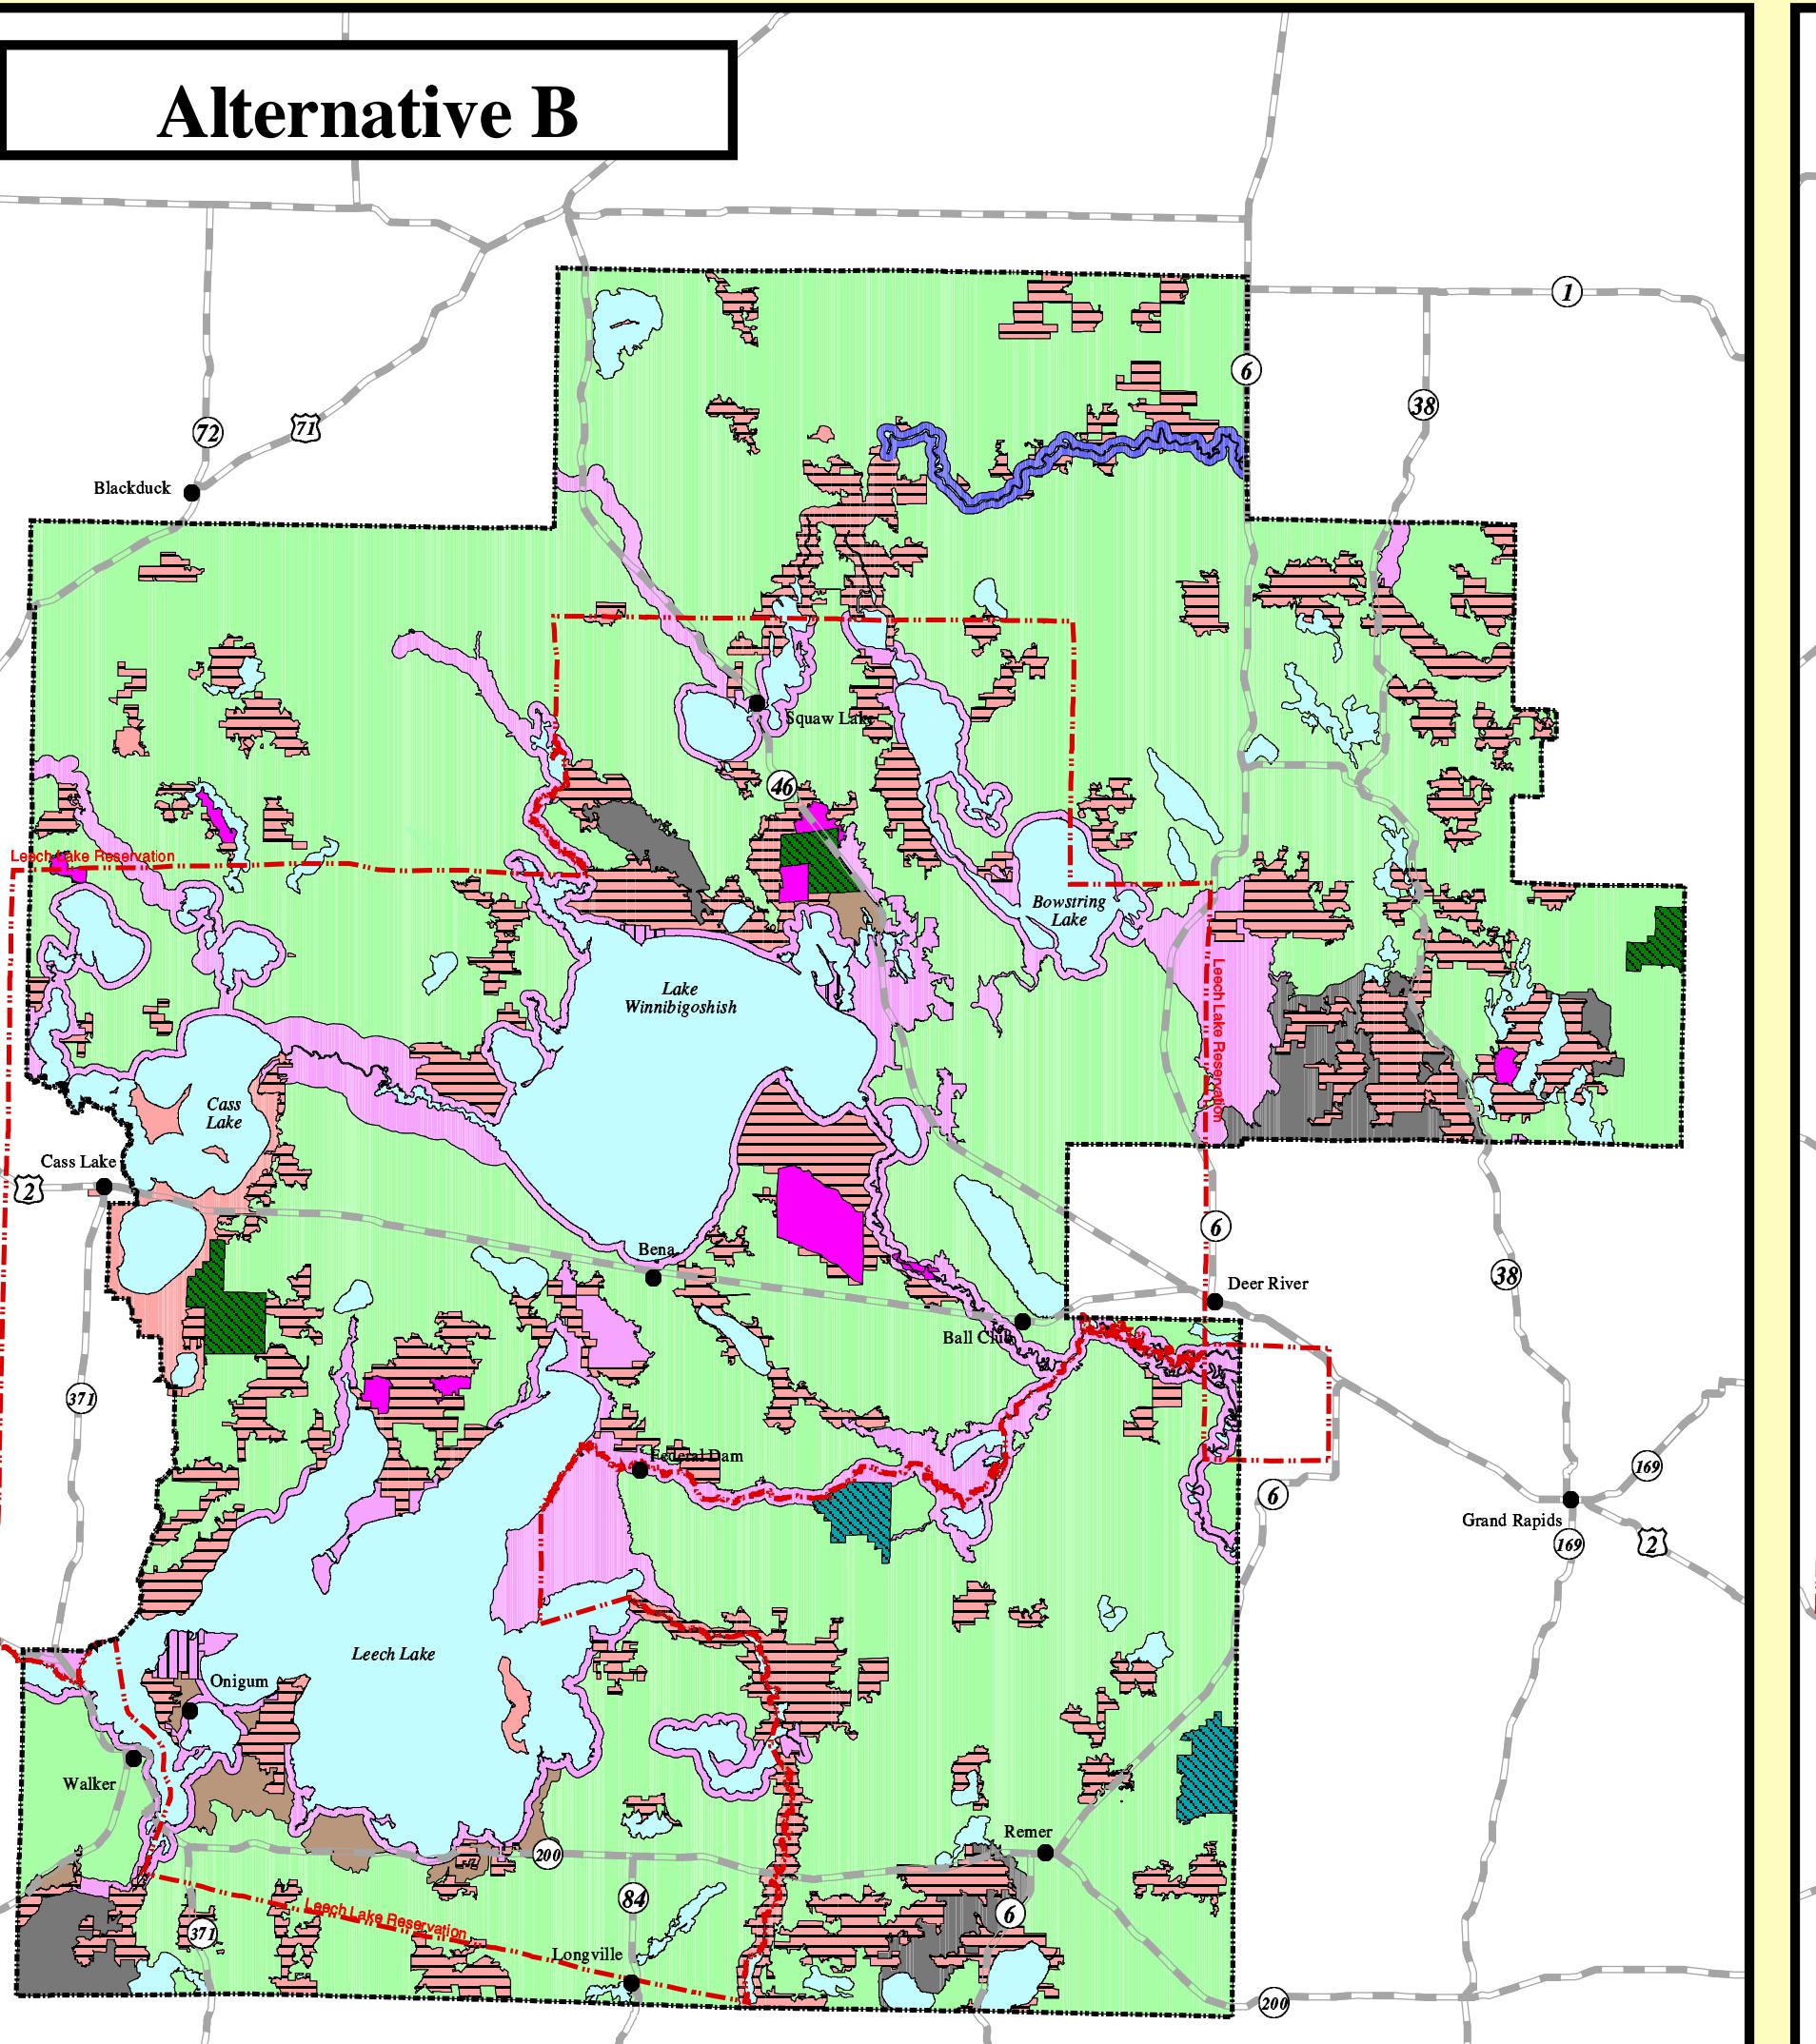

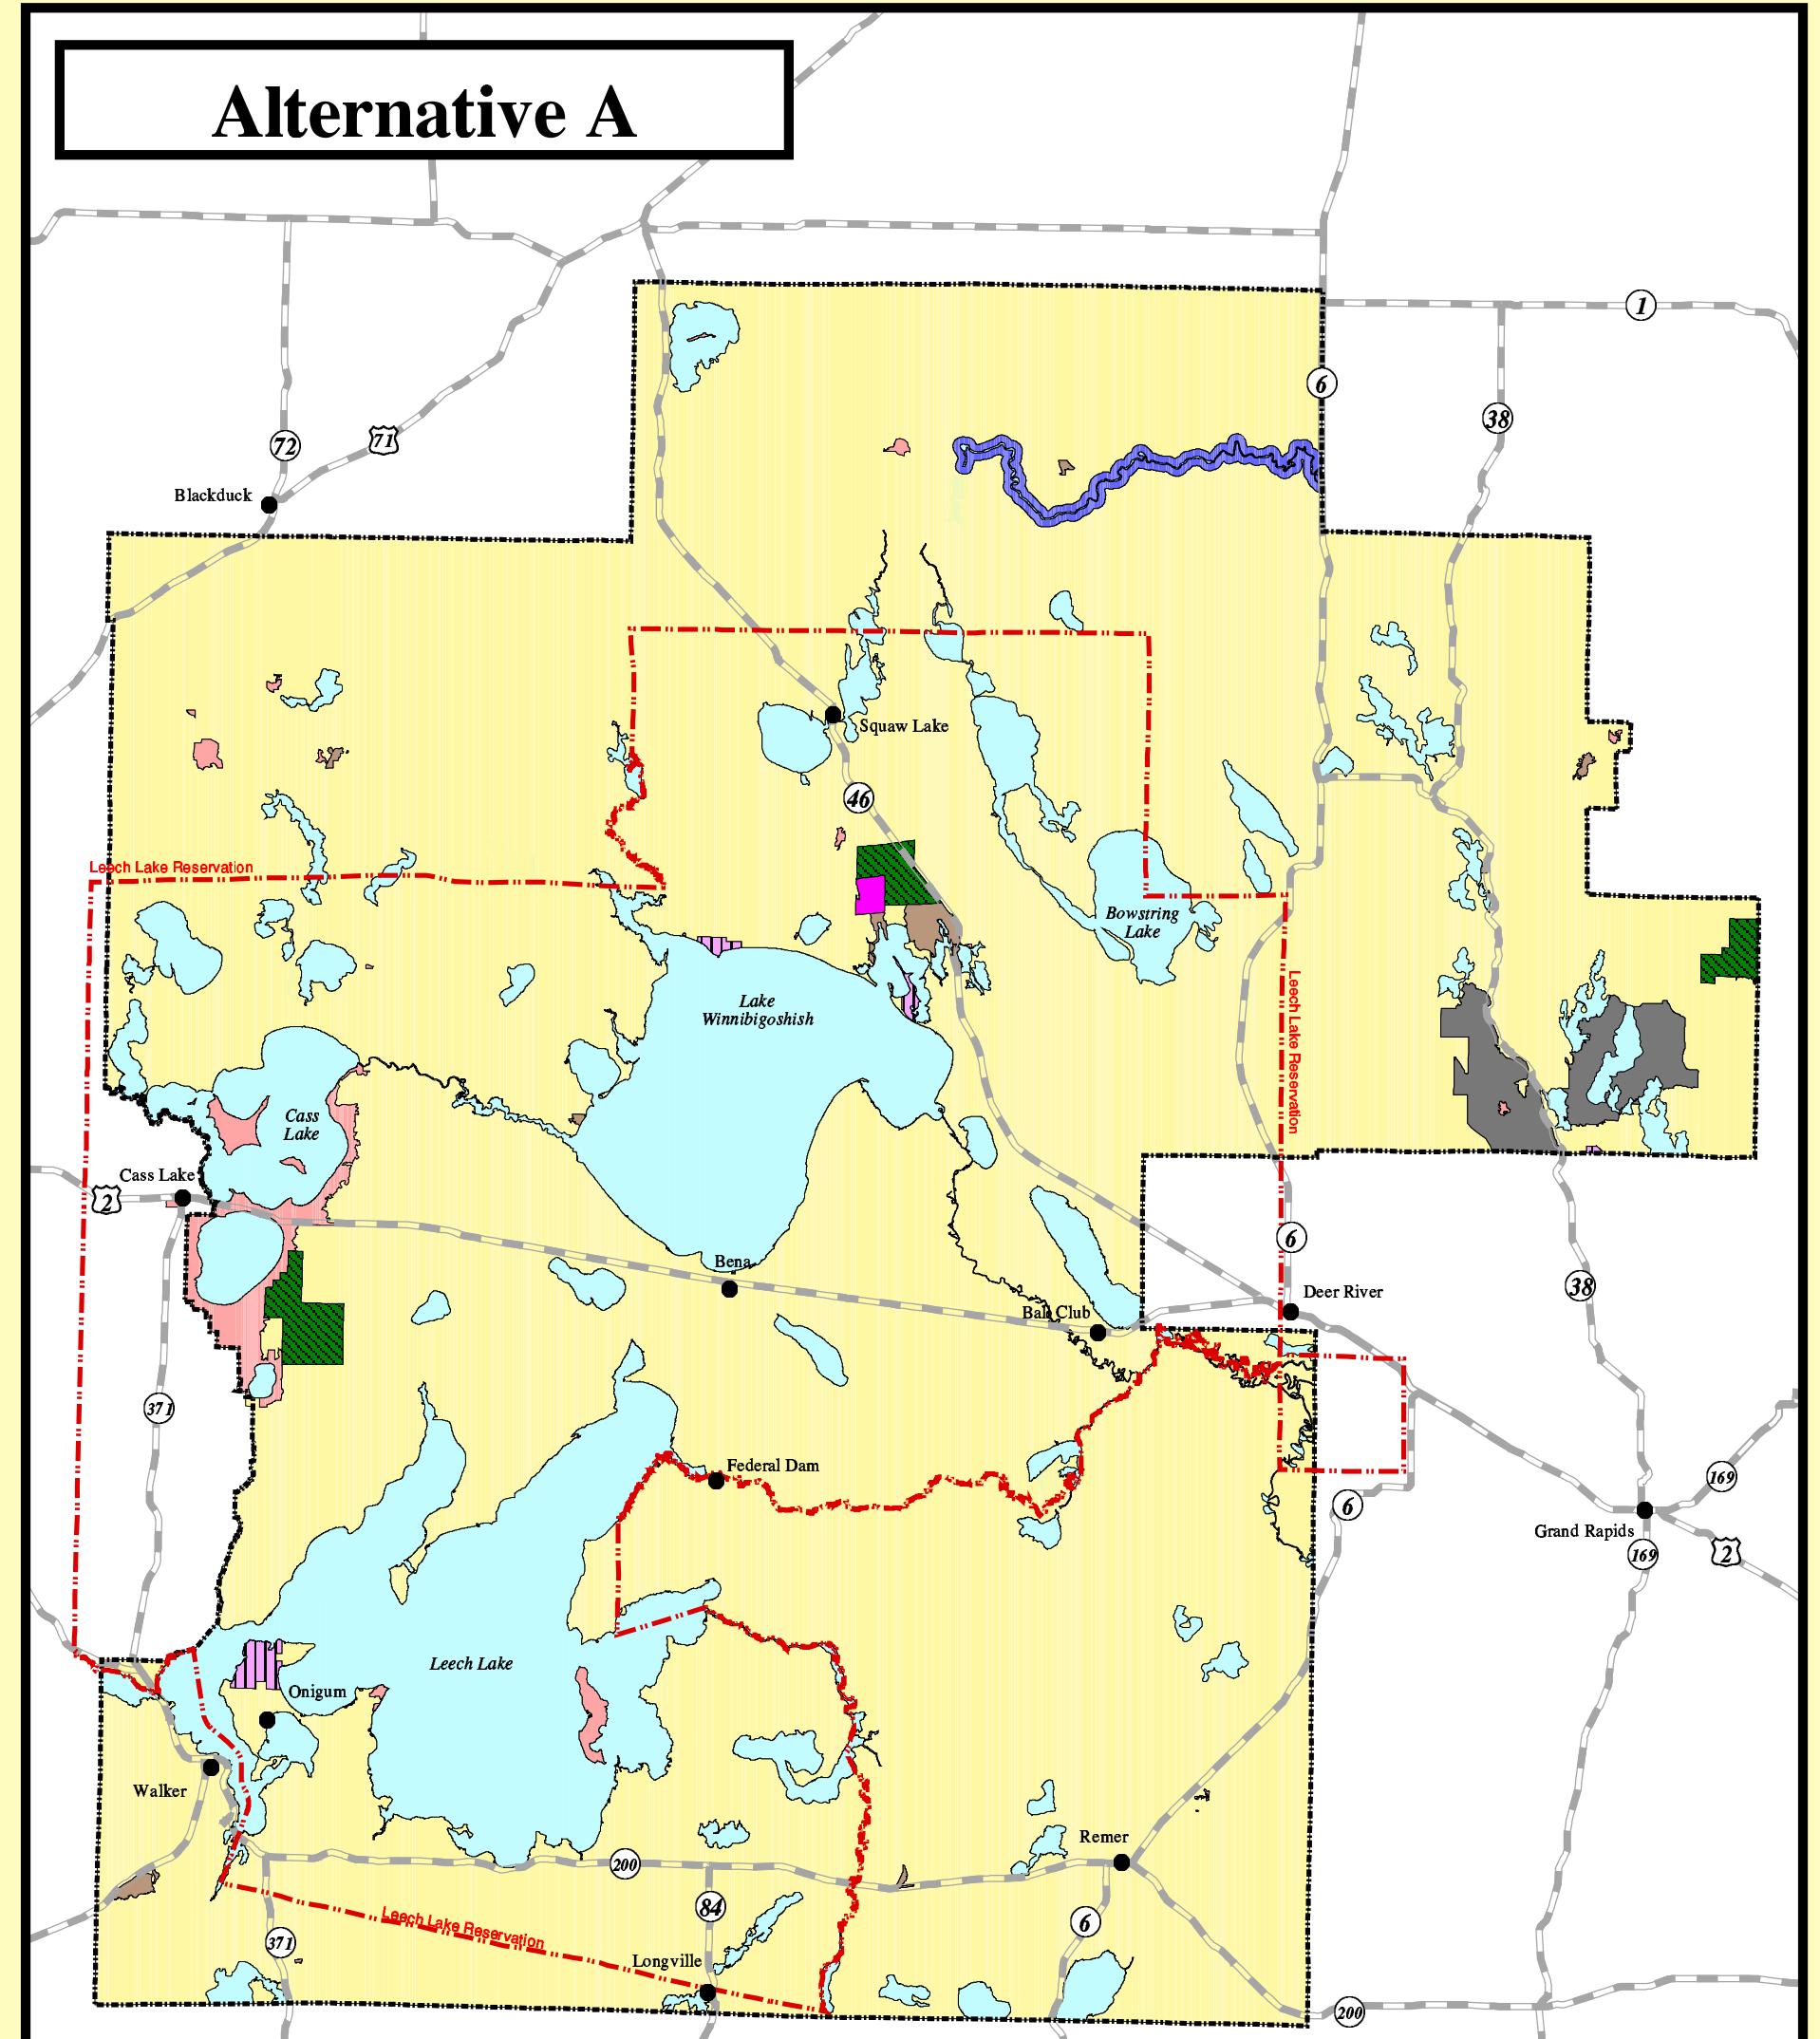

Chippewa National Forest
 Forest Plan Revision Team
 200 Ash Avenue NW
 Cass Lake, MN 56533
 (218) 335-8600

The USDA Forest Service is an equal opportunity provider.

June, 2004

10 0 10 20 Miles

Chippewa National Forest
Forest Plan Revision
Final EIS Alternatives

