Definitions

Area. Designated areas should have natural resource characteristics that are suitable for cross-country motor vehicle use or should be so significantly altered by past actions that motor vehicle use might be appropriate. While there is no specific acreage limitation, areas should not be large or numerous. They are intended as specific designations covering small places with clear geographic boundaries, rather than entire landscapes.

Previous language:

The following standard, which apply to motorized vehicles and bicycles, will go into effect upon completion of a site-specific designation process. 2. Areas where motorized vehicles and bicycles are restricted to open classified roads and designated trails specified for their use.
3. Areas where motorized vehicles and bicycles are permitted to travel on open classified roads, designated trails specified for their use, and unclassified roads.
