Hunter Information Booths Open Next Week

Central Oregon~ Hunter Information Booths will be opening across central Oregon Wednesday October 1st and some staffed through Friday October 3rd (see page 2 for location and times). Hunter booths are available for the public to get current fire restriction information on open fires, driving off road, chainsaw use, smoking in the forest, and more; road closure information as well as map sales, free gun locks, and coffee will also be available at most locations.

Early fall is the most dynamic time of year for fire danger. Cold nights alone do not provide added moisture and hot afternoons continue to dry out vegetation. Central Oregon received scattered showers over the past week but in recent days has not seen any moisture. The message to hunters and recreationists is to call ahead to the area you are visiting and find out the current fire use restrictions; they quickly change and vary from place to place. Some restrictions have been lifted due to the rain received; however, many areas still prohibit open fires and driving off of improved roads. Currently all Oregon Department of Forestry protected lands within central Oregon prohibit non-industrial chainsaw use from 1:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. and require a one-hour watch and fire equipment.

Fire restriction / fire use information can be found at the following locations:
