

Black Stain Root Disease Known locations in California

- black stain root disease locations
- National Forest

0 38 75 150 Miles

Locations are drawn from a variety of forest health reports dating back to the early twentieth century. Older reports were located very generally by Township Range Section, whereas newer reports are more precise and use longitude, latitude.