

Mt. Hood National Forest Firewood Permit Application

A firewood permit and load tags are required to cut and remove firewood from National Forest lands. Mt. Hood National Forest permits the harvest of up to a maximum of 6 cords per household each year. This permit is being provided free of charge for personal use only. If you intend to sell or trade firewood harvested on Mt. Hood National Forest, please inquire about a commercial permit. Free Use Firewood permits expire when the season ends, November 30, 2022.

Complete the information below. Returning customers email: SM.FS.R6MtHoodInfo@usda.gov or mail to an address below. New customers please include a copy of your ID and send by mail to one of the addresses below. Available in person at the Zigzag Ranger District walk-up located at 70220 E Highway 26, Zigzag, OR 97049.

Your permit, load tags, cutting area maps and other information will be mailed to you within two weeks. Be sure to carefully read all the conditions stated on your permit before you begin cutting. For answers to questions and up-to-date information on the Firewood Program or the availability of firewood, please call the Ranger District office where you plan to cut your firewood.
