Do you want to be an Andrew Pickens Trailhead Ambassador?

What is a Trailhead Ambassador?

Our Trailhead Ambassadors, previously known as Day Site Hosts, act as a liaison between the Forest Service and the public. You will be stationed at the District’s busiest locations during heavy use days. You will interact with the public and answer any questions they have. This may mean giving directions to a trailhead or letting a camper know the restrictions on dispersed camping.

Not sure if you know enough about the Forest to do this?

No problem! You will be provided a binder full of information and go through a training session before becoming an Ambassador.

Requirements

- Must be willing to volunteer a minimum of 12 hours a month
- Must be available to volunteer on Saturday, Sunday, and/or Holidays
- Must have strong communication and inter-personal skills

Interested in Volunteering?

Email Margaret.corley@usda.gov to express your interest in becoming a day site host volunteer

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.