

Access for Hunters with Disabilities

on the Rocky Mountain Ranger District

Helena - Lewis and Clark National Forest

The District Ranger has identified one (1) Forest Service Road on the Rocky Mountain Ranger District regarding access for hunters with disabilities, in consultation with representatives from the Russell Country Sportsman Organization.

This road, which has motorized restrictions starting on October 15, in accordance with the travel plan, is:

- Hannan Gulch- Road #3305 (East of Y)

Hunters with disabilities must comply with Fish, Wildlife & Parks (FWP) access requirements to make use of access for hunters with disabilities on the Helena - Lewis and Clark National Forest.

Hunters with the current year Permit to Hunt from a Vehicle authorization MUST BE accompanied by another person to assist with field dressing and/or recovery of a wounded game animal when hunting big game. The individual accompanying the hunter with a disability may carry a firearm but is not authorized to shoot from a vehicle.

For applications, detailed eligibility requirements, and information on licenses and permits for hunters with disabilities contact FWP office (406) 444-2950 or the FWP web site fwp.mt.gov (use the form: Permit to Hunt From a Vehicle or Resident w/ a Disability Conservation License).

When necessary, hunters with disabilities that have the current year Permit to Hunt from a Vehicle or Resident w/ a Disability Conservation License may obtain combination lock information in person from the following offices:

- Supervisors Office: 1220 38th St. N., Great Falls
- District Office: 1102 Main Ave. N., Choteau
- Augusta Information Station: 405 Manix St., Augusta
