

SNOWSHOE WITH A RANGER

When: Monday, December 28th, 2015

Where: Coyote Hill trailhead

Time: 10:00 AM — 11:30 AM

Cost: FREE!!

Open to ages 6-10 y/o, all snowshoe abilities welcomed. Parents are also welcome and recommended for younger participants.

Bring your own snowshoes if you have them! Some snowshoes will be provided.

You may want to bring with you snacks, water, and remember to dress for the weather!

Directions: For convenience we will begin our winter adventure at the parking area on the right side of Piedra Road just after the first cattle guard, about five and half miles north of Hwy 160.

Questions? Contact Brandon at bjcaley@fs.fed.us or call 264-2268.

The USDA is an equal opportunity employer and provider.