

Maintenance Worker Helper Seasonal Job Opportunity Boise National Forest

The USDA Forest Service, Boise National Forest anticipates filling 1 to 2 Maintenance Worker Helper positions for up to 6 months. The positions will likely start in mid-May and end in late October. Look for job vacancy announcements at USAJOBS.

Position Description:

The position will serve as maintenance worker helper primarily focusing on maintenance activities related to facilities including buildings, water systems, and landscapes. Job duties include assisting other workers with repairs to various facilities and grounds. Requirements of the job include utilizing elementary knowledge of different skills and related tools of the trade to assist with repairs to plumbing, drainage systems, roofs, carpentry projects, grounds and street repairs, flooring, painting, and other miscellaneous maintenance tasks. Other duties may include assisting in evaluations and recording of findings at various facilities including buildings, and water systems.

The selected individual will work 5-8 hour (Monday-Friday) or 4-10 hour days (Monday to Thursday) each week depending on the site location and terrain. Approximately 55% of the work will require working in remote locations in all types of weather. Work will occur in various Forest Service compounds that may be very remote and driving on narrow steep forest roads is required. Overnight camping over one to two days may be required in some locations and travel per diem is provided.

Duty Station: The Idaho City Ranger station in Idaho City Idaho will be the possible duty station. Idaho City is a very small community and is within a 1 hour commute of Boise Idaho.

Housing: Seasonal bunkhouse housing with an approximately 1 mile commute may be available.

"The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all of its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex (including gender identity and expression), marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, political beliefs, genetic information, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD)."