Join Us for a Celebration and Ribbon Cutting for the Balancing Rock Trail

Friday, April 8, 2016

10:00 A.M. to Noon

Lake Vesuvius Recreation Area, near the Historic Iron Furnace Site

On Lawrence County Road 29 one mile east of State Highway 93, Pedro, Ohio

Celebrate the collaboration and partnership that built the Balancing Rock Trail. Meet the equestrian community (Elkins Creek Horse Club, Lawrence County Chapter of the Ohio Horseman's Council and Ohio University Southern Equine Studies) and others who made this trail possible.

Come at 10:00 A.M. to enjoy the community, refreshments, and natural beauty. Stay after the ribbon cutting to visit Lake Vesuvius or walk the scenic Balancing Rock trail. Dress appropriately for weather conditions and hiking.

Directions from Ironton, Ohio: Drive north on State Route 93 for 7 miles. Turn east (right) on to County Road 29 (Ellisonville-Paddle Creek Rd) 1 mile to the Vesuvius Historic Iron Furnace site. The closest street address is 928 County Road 29, Pedro, Ohio 45659 (go 500 feet past this address.)

Latitude 38.605542, Longitude -82.628980
