

GOT NATURE?

Kids and Nature Film Series
Presented by United States Forest Service and Teton Regional Land Trust

PLAY AGAIN

Thursday, April 7

What are the consequences of a child removed from nature? At a time when children play more behind screens than outside, this film explores the changing balance between the virtual and natural worlds and follows six teenagers on their first wilderness adventure. There will be a forum following the film.

Wildlife Film Fest Featuring
KRIS MILLGATE

Thursday, April 14

East Idaho's own Kris Millgate, Outdoor Journalist and Filmmaker, will delight audience with films, stories, and bloopers featuring Island Park and the wildlife of Eastern Idaho. Kris will use humor and technology to connect kids to their natural environment.

MOTHER NATURE'S CHILD

Thursday, April 21

This film addresses the question, Why do children need unstructured time outside? The film explores nature's powerful role in children's health and development as the epidemics in child obesity, attention disorders and depression continue to grow. There will be a forum following the film.

ARTITOIURUM ON BROADWAY
271 WEST BROADWAY, IDAHO FALLS
6:00 PM TO 8:00 PM

ABOUT THE SERIES

Today's children and families often have limited opportunities to connect with the natural environment. This series will explore the issues, opportunities and benefits of connecting children with nature. Booths with information on outdoor programs will be available prior to the films.

for the greatest good

To reserve a seat, please visit: www.eventbrite.com and search Got Nature? RSVP is encouraged.
For more information, please contact Garth Smelser at 208-557-5761 or Diane Temple at 208-354-8939.