

April 20, 2016 Update: Fire managers will continue to carefully evaluate conditions, including impacts to air quality, and may begin their prescribed burning of approximately 773 acres in the Damon Project area, located on the Blue Mountain Ranger District, as early as Thursday, April 21 and may continue through the weekend.

The area is located off Forest Road 3925 and adjacent to Hwy 395, North of Seneca.