Unlisted classifications needed for work not included within the scope of the classifications listed may be added after award only as provided in the labor standards contract clauses (29CFR 5.5 (a) (1) (ii)).

The body of each wage determination lists the classification and wage rates that have been found to be prevailing for the cited type(s) of construction in the area covered by the wage determination. The classifications are listed in alphabetical order of "identifiers" that indicate whether the particular rate is a union rate (current union negotiated rate for local), a survey rate (weighted average rate) or a union average rate (weighted union average rate).

Union Rate Identifiers

A four letter classification abbreviation identifier enclosed in dotted lines beginning with characters other than "SU" or "UAVG" denotes that the union classification and rate were prevailing for that classification in the survey. Example: PLUM0198-005 07/01/2014. PLUM is an abbreviation identifier of the union which prevailed in the survey for this classification, which in this example would be Plumbers. 0198 indicates the local union number or district council number where applicable, i.e., Plumbers Local 0198. The next number, 005 in the example, is an internal number used in processing the wage determination. 07/01/2014 is the effective date of the most current negotiated rate, which in this example is July 1, 2014.

Union prevailing wage rates are updated to reflect all rate changes in the collective bargaining agreement (CBA) governing this classification and rate.

Survey Rate Identifiers

Classifications listed under the "SU" identifier indicate that no one rate prevailed for this classification in the survey and the published rate is derived by computing a weighted average rate based on all the rates reported in the survey for that classification. As this weighted average rate includes all rates reported in the survey, it may include both union and non-union rates. Example: SULA2012-007 5/13/2014. SU indicates the rates are survey rates based on a weighted average calculation of rates and are not majority rates. LA indicates the State of Louisiana. 2012 is the year of survey on which these classifications and rates are based. The next number, 007 in the example, is an internal number used in producing the wage determination. 5/13/2014 indicates the survey completion date for the classifications and rates under that identifier.

Survey wage rates are not updated and remain in effect until a new survey is conducted.

Union Average Rate Identifiers

Classification(s) listed under the UAVG identifier indicate that no single majority rate prevailed for those classifications; however, 100% of the data reported for the classifications was union data. EXAMPLE: UAVG-OH-0010 08/29/2014. UAVG indicates that the rate is a weighted union average rate. OH indicates the state. The next number, 0010 in the example, is an internal number used in producing the wage determination. 08/29/2014 indicates the survey completion date for the classifications and rates under that identifier.

A UAVG rate will be updated once a year, usually in January of each year, to reflect a weighted average of the current negotiated/CBA rate of the union locals from which the rate is based.

WAGE DETERMINATION APPEALS PROCESS

1.) Has there been an initial decision in the matter? This can be:

- * an existing published wage determination
- * a survey underlying a wage determination
- * a Wage and Hour Division letter setting forth a position on a wage determination matter

* a conformance (additional classification and rate) ruling

On survey related matters, initial contact, including requests for summaries of surveys, should be with the Wage and Hour Regional Office for the area in which the survey was conducted because those Regional Offices have responsibility for the Davis-Bacon survey program. If the response from this initial contact is not satisfactory, then the process described in 2.) and 3.) should be followed.

With regard to any other matter not yet ripe for the formal process described here, initial contact should be with the Branch of Construction Wage Determinations. Write to:

Branch of Construction Wage Determinations
Wage and Hour Division
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20210

2.) If the answer to the question in 1.) is yes, then an interested party (those affected by the action) can request review and reconsideration from the Wage and Hour Administrator (See 29 CFR Part 1.8 and 29 CFR Part 7). Write to:

Wage and Hour Administrator
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20210

The request should be accompanied by a full statement of the interested party's position and by any information (wage payment data, project description, area practice material, etc.) that the requestor considers relevant to the issue.

3.) If the decision of the Administrator is not favorable, an interested party may appeal directly to the Administrative Review Board (formerly the Wage Appeals Board). Write to:

Administrative Review Board
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20210

4.) All decisions by the Administrative Review Board are final.

References may be contacted regarding such topics as: your firm's capabilities, efficiency, and effectiveness on their projects; whether your firm's performance conformed to the terms and conditions of their contract; and how reasonable and cooperative your firm was during performance; and your firm's commitment to customer satisfaction. For those contracts with less than positive performance, you are encouraged to provide a description of the problems and the efforts made to correct and

The Government may also obtain past performance information from other than the sources identified by the offeror. Information obtained from the Past Performance Information Retrieval System (PPIRS) database located at <http://www.ppirs.gov> is one of the sources that may be utilized. PPIRS functions as the central warehouse for performance assessment reports received from several Federal performance information collection systems and is sponsored by the DOD E-Business Office and administered by the Naval Sea Logistics Center Detachment Portsmouth.

NOTE: In accordance with FAR 15.305, in the case of an offeror without a record of relevant past performance or for whom information on past performance is not available, the offeror will not be evaluated either favorably or unfavorably in this area, but instead will receive a neutral rating in the area of past performance. Offerors that have relevant past performance and plan to supply references, please provide the following: Contractor's name, phone number and relevant work required in this solicitation.

3. Price: Technical capability and past performance when combined are approximately equal to price.

SECTION M - Evaluation Factors for Award

Award(s) will be made to the offeror whose quote is technically acceptable, has the demonstrated competence, and qualifications necessary for the satisfactory performance of this type of contract. Technical capabilities and past performance (non-price factors), when combined will be approximately equal to cost or price.

The technical/price trade-off will not be based on spread between the technical scores but rather on what, in the judgment of the Contracting Officer, specific advantages have been proposed and the value of the advantages as compared to price differentials between offers. The degree of importance of cost as a factor could become greater depending upon the quality of the quotes for other factors evaluated. Where competing quotes are determined to be substantially equal, total cost and other cost factors would become the controlling factors. The critical factor in making any cost/technical trade-offs is not the spread between technical rating, but is rather what it would cost the Government to take advantage of that difference.

This means that award may not necessarily be made to the offeror submitting the lowest proposed price but to an offeror proposing technical advantages that would appear to exceed those needed for the successful performance of the work. Thus the Government reserves the right to make technical/price trade-offs that are in the best interest and to the advantage of the Government.

Quote should be submitted initially on the most favorable terms from a price and technical standpoint, which the offeror can submit to the Government. However, the Government may, after evaluation of quotes, conduct further oral or written discussions as appropriate, with all offerors whose quotes are within a competitive range.

M-2. EVALUATION FACTORS

The following evaluation factors are listed in descending order of importance,

Failure to adequately address any item or sub-item could be removed from consideration and/or reduce your rating.

1. Technical Capability and Approach:

This factor evaluates the offeror's technical capability offered and the technical approach proposed to accomplish the work. In evaluating the offeror's technical capability, the Government will consider the experience of the entity, the key personnel, and any subcontractors proposed. In evaluating the technical approach, the Government will consider the offeror's proposed strategy and the equipment to be used to determine the likeliness of success in performing the required effort. As part of the offeror's proposed strategy, the Government will consider strategies for work accomplishment and timelines. In the quality control plan, the Government will evaluate for assurance that quality requirements and specifications are met, that offeror has provided for personnel to monitor onsite quality control and their responsibilities; identification of any planned subcontractors along with project work they will be completing.

2. Past Performance

There are two aspects to the Government's evaluation of past performance. The first is to evaluate the offeror's past performance to determine how relevant and recent the effort accomplished by the offeror is to the effort to be acquired through this procurement. The second aspect of the past performance evaluation is to determine how well the offeror has performed on the contracts by reviewing the past performance narrative and by gathering information from current and previous customers of the offeror.

Government evaluators may avail themselves of various federal, state, and local past performance databases. The Government may research offeror performance on any federal, state, local, and commercial contract performance of the offeror that is known to the Government, but not included in the provided narrative or references. Additionally, personal experience and evaluator knowledge of the offeror's performance may be utilized.

The Government will consider the relevance of past performance information obtained in relation to the scope of this procurement with respect to both a similar effort, and the length and scope, number, and complexity. Past performance, either positive or negative, which is considered by the Government to be more closely related to the scope of this effort, will be given additional weight in the evaluation process.

NOTE: In accordance with FAR 15.305, in the case of an offeror without a record of relevant past performance or for whom information on past performance is not available, the offeror will not be evaluated either favorably or unfavorably in this area, but instead will receive a neutral rating in the area of past performance. Offerors that have relevant past performance and plan to supply references, please provide the following: Contractor's name, phone number and relevant work required in this solicitation.

3. Price:

Technical capability and past performance when combined are approximately equal to price.
