If you brought something into the forest,
take it back home with you!

The Gifford Pinchot National Forest belongs to all Americans and we need your help to keep it clean! Practice the principles of Leave No Trace when you visit the Gifford Pinchot National Forest.

1. Plan Ahead and Prepare
2. Travel and Camp on Durable Surfaces
3. Dispose of Waste Properly
4. Leave What You Find
5. Minimize Campfire Impacts
6. Respect Wildlife
7. Be Considerate of Other Visitors

employer, and lender.*

Make campground reservations online or by phone:

www.recreation.gov
1-877-444-6777

- Reservations are not required, but recommended on busy summer weekends.
- Recreation.gov charges a fee for reservations. Recreation.gov may have a minimum stay for weekend reservations.

Answers to a few frequently asked questions:

- Many of our sites are reservable. Please refer to the camping grid to see areas open to reservations.
- Spring campsite opening dates are subject to weather and road conditions. Please check current conditions online or call your local Gifford Pinchot office for more information.
- None of the campgrounds have electrical hookups.
- None of the campgrounds have RV holding tank dump stations. There are stations available at some local RV parks.
- None of the campgrounds have showers.
- There is a 14-day maximum stay at campgrounds. Single sites are limited to a maximum of 8 people.

No open sites? There are many campgrounds surrounding the forest. For more information, visit:
