

July 23, 2016 Rocky Ridge fire, located in Willard Canyon, Box Elder County, east of the community of Willard. The fire was mapped 7/23 at 47 acres. Fire is located east of the community of Willard, Box Elder County. Fire is being managed under unified command with Box Elder County and Forest Service. Fire is in extremely steep rocky terrain. Burning in grass, sagebursh, oak brush and Mountain Mahogany. Resources on fire include 1 Forest Service engine, 6 Box Elder County firefighters, 2 helicopters & Weber basin Job Corp crew. Priorities are Firefighter and public safety, minimize impacts to the community of Willard and the associated infrastructure and minimize fire spread on private land.

