

United States Department of Agriculture

You're invited to the 200th anniversary celebration of the Fort at Prospect Bluff in the Apalachicola National Forest

SAVE THE DATE ! – Saturday, October 22, 2016

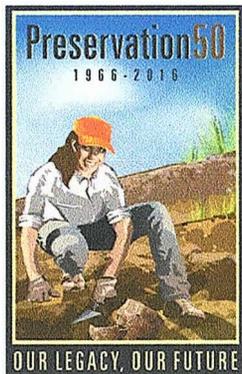

This commemorative event at British Fort & Fort Gadsden National Historic Landmark is FREE to the public.

- Gate opens at 10 AM – Closes 3 PM EASTERN TIME
- Tour site and learn from local historians
- Commemorative Program 11:30 – 12:30
- Seminole Color Guard, Traditional Invocation, Descendants of Prospect Bluff Maroon community, Recognition of Volunteers, Invited Keynote Speaker - Chairman James Billie, Seminole Tribe of Florida
- Bring Picnic Lunch

Directions:

From the intersection of CR 379 (Apalachee Savannahs Scenic Byway) and SR 65 in Sumatra, drive south on SR 65 for 4 miles. Turn right on Brickyard Road (also Forest Road 129, unpaved). Look for Event Parking.

PRESERVATION 50

Fifty Years of Historic Preservation

The National Historic Preservation Act established the federal review process for protection of historic properties. Under Section 106 of the law, federal agencies must consider the effects on historic properties of projects they carry out, approve, or fund, and must consult with interested parties in order to try to minimize adverse effects.

Follow us on twitter @NFInFlorida Like us on Facebook @NationalForestsInFlorida Visit us at www.fs.usda.gov/apalachicola

