

United States Department of Agriculture

“Connect to Nature”

Experience Dispersed Recreation in Alabama’s National Forests: Hiking, Bird Watching, Walking, Picnicking, Swimming, Canoeing, Mountain Biking, Primitive Camping, Hunting, Horseback Riding

Bankhead (Double Springs), Conecuh (Andalusia), Talladega (Brent), Talladega (Heflin), Talladega (Talladega), Tuskegee (Tuskegee)

www.fs.usda.gov/alabama | free mobile app download--NF maps (www.avenza.com/pdf-maps/store)
PHONE: 334-832-4470

Share the Trail | Share the Responsibility

National Forests are managed for multiple uses and protecting natural resources. It’s a shared responsibility. Be considerate. Leave No Trace™ and Tread Lightly™.

Forest Service
Southern Region

National Forests
in Alabama 2017

