

Mill Creek Patrol/Inventory 11/9/17 – Adam Washebek

Gary Milner had reported that there were quick draws left on the route “Big Science.” Photo from Milner’s report.

- The quick draws on Big Science had been removed prior to 11/9/17
- 2 quick draws present on Cracktrilogy
- No changes to trail or changes to erosion issues at the base of the walls
- No climbers present (poor weather on 11/9)
- New poster with new raptor closure posted at Cow Creek and Mill Creek trailheads
- No trash or caches
- No new bolts
- I removed the belay station at the base of the Tick Wall. (16" long piece of treated lumber with 2 pieces of rebar to hole it in place)
