

Atkisson Ski Trails

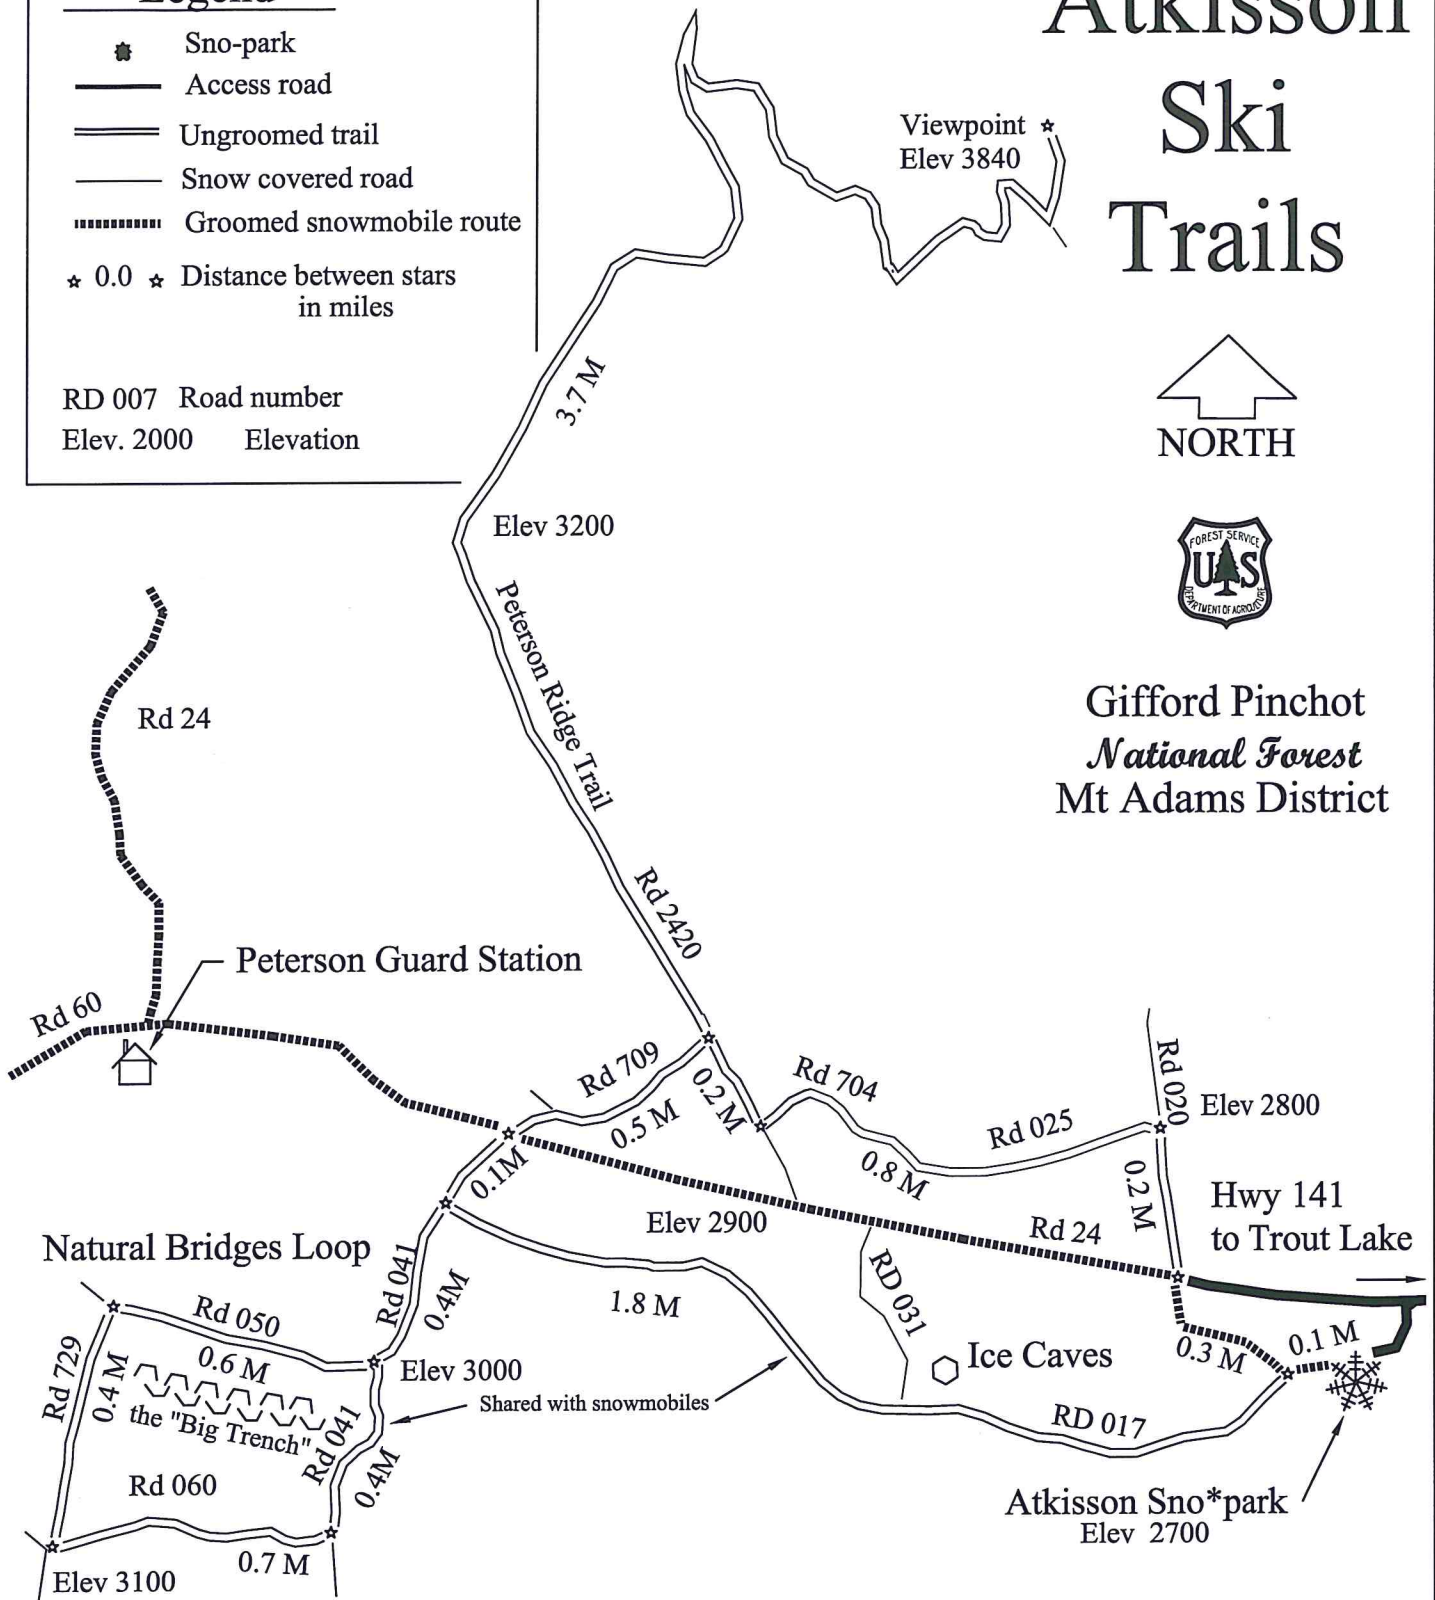

Gifford Pinchot
National Forest
Mt Adams District

Legend

- Sno-park
- Access road
- Ungroomed trail
- Snow covered road
- Groomed snowmobile route
- ☆ 0.0 ☆ Distance between stars in miles

RD 007 Road number
Elev. 2000 Elevation

The ski trails are signed with blue diamonds. The trails are not groomed. Snowmobiles are not restricted from these trails.

← 1 kilometer →

← 1 mile →

ATKISSON SNO*PARK

Mt. Adams Ranger District

Access: WA State Route 141 north to end, left on Forest Road 1700-011.

Elevation: 2,700 feet.

Facilities: Paved parking for 30 cars, toilets, shelter with wood stove, bulletin board.

ATKISSON SKI TRAILS

Ski trails are signed with blue diamonds. The trails are not groomed.

Snowmobiles are not restricted from these trails.

ICE CAVES LOOP

Rating: Easy.

Length: 4.1 miles round trip.

Elevation: Low 2,700 feet, high 2,940 feet.

Remarks: Relatively flat terrain. Good warm-up loop. Take short spur trail off Road 017 to access Trout Lake Ice Caves.

NATURAL BRIDGES LOOP

Rating: More difficult.

Length: 6.7 miles round trip via Road 017.

Elevation: Low 2,700 feet, high 3,100 feet.

Remarks: Follow Road 017 and 041 to loop around Big Trench, a collapsed lava tube with several natural bridges. Stay well away from edge of trench, especially when icy.

PETERSON RIDGE TRAIL

Rating: More difficult.

Length: 10.6 miles round trip.

Elevation: Low 2,700 feet, high 3,800 feet.

Remarks: From north side of Ice Caves Loop, take Road 2420 up to Peterson Ridge. You may see elk among beaver ponds and open meadows. Top has views of Mt. Adams and Mt. Hood.