

David Hague/NFAB Member:Good afternoon all, and Happy Social Distancing to you all!

DeAnna Kay (Senator Enzi):Danielle I made it on - DeAnna Kay (Senator Enzi)

Katie Murray:I'm also on!

Katie Murray:What about rec sites -- campgrounds, trailhead parking area (ex. Wrinkle Rock), bathrooms, etc?

Paul Pierson:I know that the forest's ability to get the target out has been affected by the COVID-19, just want to let everyone know that a total program of 140,000 ccf will have significant negative impacts to the timber industry.

Mary Z.:how do i unmute phone?

Mary Z.:hand up here.

Danielle Wiebers/NFAB:I'll remind Jerry after this point

David Hague/NFAB Member:How many of the seasonal trails were opened on or around May 15th?

Paul Pierson:The authors of the GTR have made qualifying remarks that the scenarios in the GTR are highly unlikely to occur. NFAB has a working group looking into the topic of sustainability.

Robert Burns:Does this include all forested areas both public and private?

Danielle Wiebers/NFAB:Bob, did they answer your question when talking about private land being taken into consideration?

Greg Josten / SD Dept. of Agriculture:The State Forest Action Plans address all forest lands regardless of ownership.

Danielle Wiebers/NFAB:Thanks Greg!

Robert Burns:Marcus answered and so did Greg.

David Hague/NFAB Member:What recruiting agency are you utilizing, USA Jobs? Any others?

Alice Allen/NFAB 2:Did I understand that Rob Hoelscher will be a permanent employee here now?

Alice Allen/NFAB 2:Thanks!

Robert Burns:Would the board be expected to vote on Working groups recommendation at the June meeting

Danielle Wiebers/NFAB:I'll ask Jerry to follow up with us on the deadline for recommendation before we close out.

Robert Burns:ðŹŹŹŹ

Jerry Krueger:Not likely at the June meeting as we will need to consider the revised GTR - but the board may elect to provide interim recommendations -- for instance -- on forest plan revision or future collaborative efforts

Paul Pierson:No comment

Scott Jacobson - NFAB Committee Coordinator:scott.j.jacobson@usda.gov

Tiesha Street:.)

David Hague/NFAB Member:Big thanks to the staff that helped put this meeting together in this format, it was appreciated.

Jerry Krueger:Tiesha is a rock star!
