

Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit
Fallen Leaf Lake Trail ATM Environmental Analysis
Errata #1; December 2013

Through the appeal resolution process it was found that the LTBMU did not incorporate comments received by the Camp Richardson Corral effectively. As a result the EA was reviewed for opportunity to change trail designed uses to allow for permitted pack and saddle designed use on trails that provide short loop opportunities and provide views of Fallen Leaf Lake. The appellant emphasized that views of Fallen Leaf Lake and short loops are necessary for viable operations of the 70 plus year permitted use. In addition, some errors were found in the characterization of utility roads as trails and paved bike path allowed uses. The following changes were made:

Nineteen routes were identified that required changes. Changes in the designed use were all from hiker designed trails to pack and saddle designed trails. The area trails will remain closed to motorized vehicles and the allowed uses of the trails remain the same as originally shown in the EA. The change to the designed use and corrections allow for equestrian guiding activities to continue on the above trails as well as other trails shown in the EA which were not changed. The attached map shows the design uses and corrections in this Errata.
