Trail Information, Safety and Etiquette

- Remember to let someone know where you are going and when you will be back. Mobile phone coverage is spotty to non-existent along the Sulphur Springs Trail.
- No bicycles are allowed on the trail.
- The trail goes through mixed land ownership. Please respect private land and respect signs.
- Please stay on the trail. Don’t cut switchbacks. You can help prevent damage to fragile plants and habitats along the trail by staying on the hardened trail surface.
- Take only pictures and leave only footprints.

USDA Non-Discrimination Policy Statement

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA’s TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD). To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
