

Tuesday Morning Bird Walks

Every Tuesday
From May through October 7, 2014
Depending on Weather and Fire Conditions.

WHERE: Meet at the Sandia Ranger Station, Tijeras, NM.

TIME: 8:00 am

BRING: Sunscreen, hat, lightweight jacket, binoculars, water and snacks.

TIME FRAME: 1 1/2 to 2 hours on established trails. The walks are not difficult because we move slowly.

Expect some changes in elevation.

CALL 281-3304 FOR MORE INFORMATION.

The hikes are free,
However, an AMENITY Fee of $3.00
is required at picnic grounds and trailheads along the Sandia Crest (536) Scenic Byway, unless you have and display your Annual Pass.

Won't you join us? Come discover the residents of high-elevation spruce-fir, mid-mountain meadows, mixed conifer and riparian-woodland habitats that range in elevation from 6,800 to 10,678 feet.

Our walks are led by volunteers from the Sandia Ranger District and Central New Mexico Audubon Society.

See You There!
