

Aldo Leopold and his Land Ethic

Join us for a talk about the visionary thoughts of Aldo Leopold and the origins of wilderness preservation in America.

It is the 50th anniversary of the Wilderness Act of 1964, which set aside lands to be preserved in perpetuity for the benefit of all Americans.

Colorado State University Professor Richard Knight will guide us through the life of Aldo Leopold, the father of Wilderness.

7pm Tuesday May 20th, 2014.

Blue River Room,
Silverthorne Public Library

The event is FREE and open to the public.

The event is part of the nation-wide celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Wilderness Act. For more information and additional events, visit <http://www.wilderness50th.org/> and the Friends of the Eagles Nest Wilderness at <http://fenw.org/>
