

Coconino National Forest | RG-R3-04-06 | Revised January 2023

ARE YOU PREPARED?

Tell someone when and where you are going. Carry the following items with you when out on the trail:

- Water: At least one gallon per person, per day
- Food: Salty snacks. Eat twice as much as normal
- First Aid Kit
- Flashlight or Headlamp: Extra batteries
- Map and Compass
- Appropriate Clothing: Extra layer, rain jacket, hiking shoes, hat, and sunscreen
- Whistle and Signal Mirror: For emergencies
- Knife or Multi-tool
- Charged Cell Phone: Call 911 if injured and stay in place until help arrives. Service can be unreliable.

VISITOR CENTERS

Welcome to the Red Rocks. Our National Forest visitor centers can provide information to make the most of your visit, with knowledgeable staff, restrooms, maps, guidebooks, gifts, and passes.

Phone: (928) 203-2900 and 282-4119.

9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. daily, except 12-4:30 Wednesday

Oak Creek Canyon Visitor Center, at Indian Gardens

North on State Route 89A at Milepost 378.2

Phone: (928) 203-0624

9 a.m.-4 p.m. daily (seasonal)

Sedona Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center

331 Forest Road

Phone: (928) 282-7722.

8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. daily

A recreation pass is required at area day-use fee sites - either a Red Rock Pass or a Federal Recreational Lands Pass. A $5 Red Rock Pass can be purchased at fee sites, from local vendors, or at www. Recreation.gov. See page 3 for information.

The southwest sun can be intense. Weather changes quickly and unexpectedly. Be prepared for extreme heat or cold, high winds, and sudden storms all in the same day.

Leave What You Find

Plants, rocks, artifacts, insects, and animals should be left where you found them so that others can enjoy the discovery as well. Also, please do not stack rocks.

Respect Wildlife

Keep your pets on a leash, and observe any wildlife from a distance. Never feed wild animals or throw rocks or other objects at them.

Leave No Trace

Pack out and dispose of any trash properly. Even "natural" waste such as apple cores and fruit peels should be carried out with you.

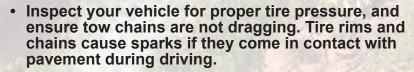

Stay On the Trail

Follow rock cairns like the one shown here, especially to find the path on slick rock areas.

CAN PREVENT WILDFIRES

- Always extinguish and dispose of cigarettes properly. Don't flick your ashes or butts on the ground—especially near vegetation.
- Only build campfires in designated areas clear of vegetation and debris. Never leave a campfire unattended, as it is illegal to do so.
- Drown, stir, and feel your campfire before leaving the area to make sure it's completely out. If it's too hot to touch, it's too hot to leave.

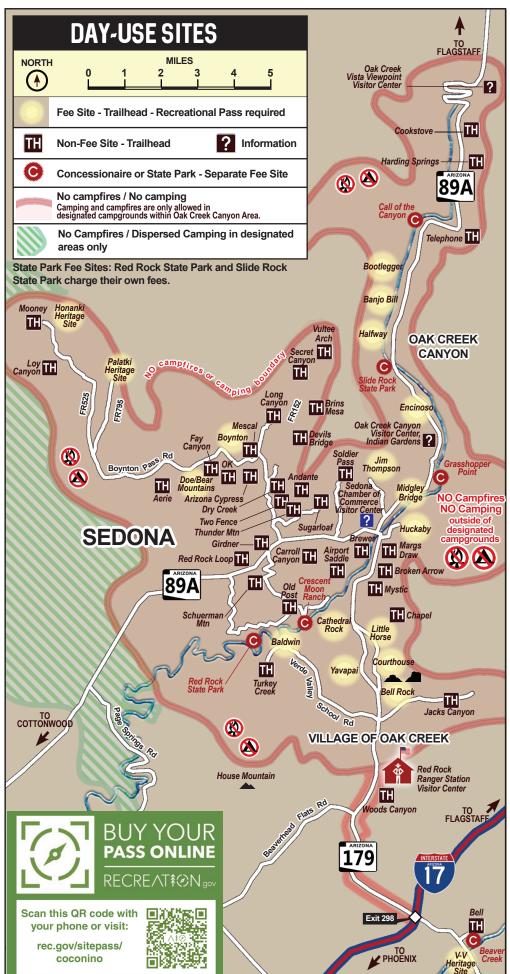

- Do not park vehicles over dry vegetation.
 - Fireworks and exploding targets are always illegal on national forests.
 - Call 911 to report a wildfire.

RECREATION PASSES

Do I Need a Pass?

If you leave your vehicle while recreating at one of the fee sites, you must purchase a Red Rock Pass. If purchasing it online, your license plate number will verify your pass, with no printed pass generated. Passes cannot be transferred to multiple vehicles.

Where Can I Get a Pass?

Red Rock Passes

- Purchase daily and weekly passes at fee site vending machines
- Purchase daily, weekly, and annual passes from Recreation.gov (rec.gov/sitepass/ coconino)
- Purchase hangtag passes at local vendors, concessionaires, and visitor centers: Oak Creek Canyon; Red Rock Ranger Station; and Sedona Chamber of Commerce.

Daily or weekly passes are available in fee machines at fee sites.

America the Beautiful-Federal Recreational Lands Passes

 Purchase passes at the Red Rock Ranger Station, Sedona Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center (annual only), any national park or monument, or from USGS at store.usgs.gov/pass.

Stay on the trail, and let the crust live.

Biological soil crusts are networks of living organisms on the surface of the soil. Some of these organisms are easy to see, such as moss. Look for gray, white, green, and black lichen spread like a layer of stucco over rocks and the ground. This lichen-covered soil acts as a sponge, soaking up water during rainstorms, preventing it from being carried away by wind and rain, and slowly releasing the water. The lichen and algae provide organic matter and essential nutrients.

VERDE VALLEY HISTORY & CULTURE

Prehistoric cliff dwellings and rock art sites offer vivid evidence of habitation over the past 1,500 years. According to archaeologists, the Sinagua (meaning "without water") culture flourished in the Verde Valley from around A.D. 600 to A.D. 1400. When the Sinagua abandoned the Verde Valley the Sinagua migrated to the east and then north over the course of several generations, eventually becoming part of the Hopi and other Puebloan tribes in eastern Arizona and western New Mexico.

Sometime near the end of the Sinagua occupation, the Yavapai and Apache moved into the valley. Their descendants still live here today. Rock art is one of the legacies left behind by the Sinagua. Petroglyphs (pecked or scratched images) and pictographs (painted images) are found on rock panels throughout Red Rock Ranger District. The true meaning of rock art is unknown, but various interpretations exist. Rock art could be clan signs, spiritual messages, calendars, or commemorations of events.

FOREST SERVICE HERITAGE SITES (928) 282-4119
