

M101. Clockwise from top left: Mother F088 at first densite; Scott Horton rescuing kits at Den #2 on 8 June 2010; M100 and M101 in den; emergency visit to Doc Mowbry that night; force feeding pedialite chez Happe-Jenknins, trying to keep them alive.

Clockwise from left: M100 (left) and M101 (right) upon arrival at NW Trek a couple days later; growing up at NW Trek July 2010; processing on 14 Oct, and release on 15 Oct 2010.

M101 alive in the Olympics , almost 4 years almost to the day after rescue (and after shedding his collar)

M OFP-658 26.68In→ 49°F

06-06-2014 06:53:54

M OFP-658 26.73In→ 50°F

06-07-2014 09:00:08