In 2011, the Artist in the Woods program was born on the Stanislaus National Forest. Artists applied and were selected to gain a 2 week residence in the Forest to use the Wilderness and other natural areas as the subject of their work. As part of the 50th Anniversary of the Wilderness Act, come celebrate the beauty of the Stanislaus National Forest and Wilderness areas as seen through the eyes of 6 artists, Dave Harrison photography, Dianne Stearns watercolors, Joshua Cripps photography, Sarah Anne Graham oil painting, Laurie Wigham watercolors, Wendy Klemperer sculpture and painting. Meet the artists and talk with them about their unique opportunity and adventures while living and creating beautiful artwork in the forest. Enjoy refreshments and music by Koya .
