

Little Lick and Nathan McClure Trails

Daniel Boone National Forest

- Little Lick Trail
- Nathan McClure Trail
- Forest or County Road
- State Highway
- Lakes and Streams
- National Forest
- Private
- Trailhead
- Boat Ramp
- Campground
- Parking

0 0.5 1 Miles

Nathan McClure Trail #530

London Ranger District • Daniel Boone National Forest • Kentucky

London District
761 S. Laurel Road
London, KY 40744
606-864-4163

Location
From I-75, exit 38, travel west on KY 192. Go 24.5 miles to Old Whitney Road on the left. Follow signs to the campground. From Somerset, travel east on KY 192 for 21 miles. Turn right onto Old Whitney Road. Follow signs to the campground.

Parking
Park at the campground. Do not block access to the gates.

Open Dates
Trail is open all year.

Fees
None.

Water
No drinking water.

Restrooms
Vault toilets at campground.

Accessibility
This trail does not meet accessibility standards for persons with disabilities.

Restrictions
Trail is closed to motorized vehicles.

Kentucky law prohibits the consumption of alcohol and open containers of alcohol in public places.

Do not feed bears. Food storage restrictions require that you must store your food inside a hardtop vehicle, the trunk of a car or a bear-resistant container. Pack out food and trash if bins are not provided.

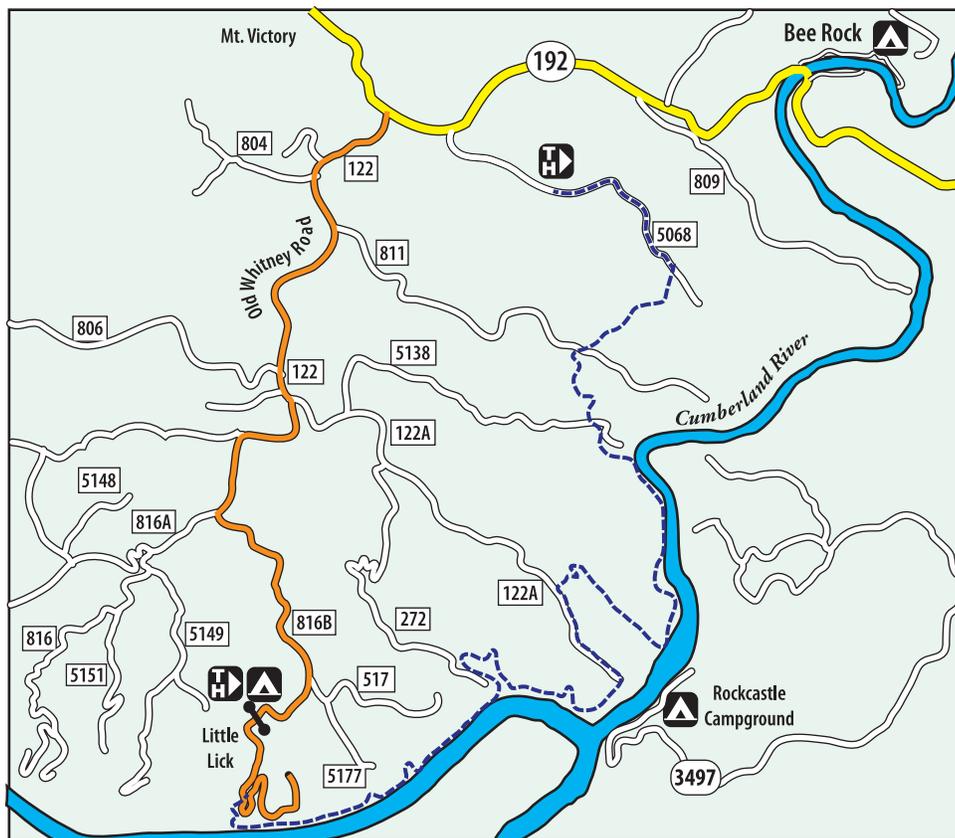

Nathan McClure Trail #530 extends for 14 miles along ridges, streams, cliffines, and Lake Cumberland. The trail begins and ends at Little Lick Campground. This trail is designed for hiking and horseback riding, and the trail is rated as moderate for horseback and ranging from easy to difficult for hikers. It is not recommended for the novice hiker. Trailhead can be accessed from Little Lick Campground, or Forest Service Road 5068 off of KY 192.

Begins:	Little Lick Campground	Parking:	At either trailhead
Ends:	Parking lot at Forest Road 5068	Difficulty:	Moderate to difficult
Length:	14 miles	Surface:	Dirt
Quad:	Hail and Sawyer	Latitude:	36.96293569
Nearest Town:	Somerset	Longitude:	-84.39866715
County:	Pulaski

Two wildlife ponds plus streams and the Cumberland River provide plenty of watering places for your horses along the trail. Loading and unloading areas with parking space is provided at each end of the trail, plus an area at the end of Forest Service Road #122A for those who wish to ride only half the trail.

KNOW before you GO You are responsible for your own safety.

All outdoor activities have inherent risks and you may encounter a variety of unexpected and/or dangerous conditions. It is your responsibility to be informed and take precautions. Learn more at www.fs.usda.gov/r8.

Guides like this are available at fs.usda.gov/dbnf.
1/20/2015

U.S. Department of Agriculture | Forest Service
Southern Region | Daniel Boone National Forest
<http://www.fs.usda.gov/dbnf>

USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

