ALTO COOP TRAIL #619

GENERAL INFORMATION: Alto Coop Trail #619 traverses a sculptural landscape of igneous granite that time has eroded into the striking boulder formations typical of the Prescott area. The trail stays mostly in thick chaparral composed of scrub oak and mountain mahogany. Yucca and prickly pear cactus find purchase in exposed soils. A closer look at these plants can reveal evidence of wildlife that is seldom seen along the trail. Javelina forage on both these species, gnawing the edges off of leaves. Scrub jays, particularly fond of pinyon pine, are usually heard before they are seen. TR 619, used primarily by off-highway vehicles, ties into the network of motorized trails southwest of Granite Mountain. This trail serves as a bridge between the Alto Pit OHV Recreation Site and Box Culvert Trail #620 and Tonto Trail #621. Please note that Alto Pit is a fee area. For more information, call the Bradshaw Ranger District at (928) 443-8000.

CAUTION: This trail is open to hikers, horseback riders, mountain bicyclists, motorcycles and ATV's. Please be considerate of others—slow down and know when to yield the trail.
