BOX CULVERT TRAIL #620

GENERAL INFORMATION: Box Culvert Trail #620 traverses a sculptural landscape of igneous granite that time has eroded into the striking boulder formations typical of the Prescott area. The trail stays in open chaparral broken occasionally by pinyon pine and juniper, ideal habitat for scrub jays, towhees, and a number of other bird species. TR 620, used primarily by off-highway vehicles, ties into the network of motorized trails southwest of Granite Mountain. This moderately technical trail meets up with Alto Coop Trail #619 before continuing on to Dosie Pit Road. TR 619 approaches the Alto Pit OHV Recreation Site, which is a fee area. Please visit the Prescott National Forest website for more details, or call the Bradshaw Ranger District at (928) 443-8000.
