Twin Branch Trail #406

The Twin Branch Trailhead begins at KY 3497. The first quarter mile winds through pine-hardwood forest. The trail then drops 300 feet to follow Twin Branch to its mouth at Lake Cumberland. Several scenic cascades may be seen along the way, best viewed in the spring when the creek has plenty of water.

An adirondack shelter is located near the junction with the Lake Side South Trail. A primitive campsite is located on the east side of Twin Branch. All water should be boiled. Please pack out your trash. Hiking difficulty is easy to moderate downhill, strenuous when hiked in reverse

Begins: KY 3497
Ends: Lakeside South #412
Length: 1 mile
County: Laurel
Surface: Dirt

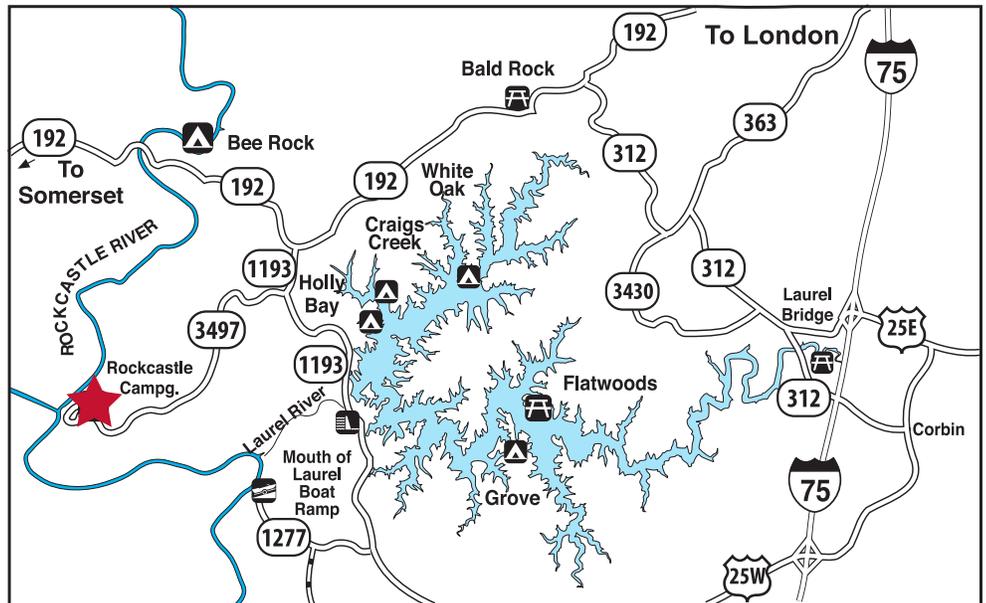

Parking: 4 cars at Ned Branch Trailhead
