Share your Malheur National Forest Experience

JOHN DAY, OR – Calling all photographers, the Malheur National Forest is updating its recreation webpage and we want to share your photos!

The forest is looking for photos showcasing the natural beauty and countless recreational opportunities available.

Specifically, we are looking for photos of the following locations, but not limited to:

- Idlewild Campground
- Joaquin Miller Campground
- Rock Springs Campground
- Emigrant Campground
- Falls Creek Campground
- Delintment Lake Campground
- Tip Top Campground
- Buck Springs Campground
- Yellowjacket Campground
- Craft Cabin Trail
- West Myrtle Creek Trail
- Myrtle Creek Trail
- FL Spring Trail
- Malheur River Trail
- Hog Flat Trail
- Calamity Butte Lookout
- Sugarloaf Lookout
- West Myrtle Lookout
- Snow Mountain Lookout

If your picture is selected, we will accredit you as the photographer on the Forest Service website.

Please email your digital photos, name, and contact information to emigrantcreek@gmail.com.
