

Each year the Red Rock Pass Fee Program helps pay for...

- information for over 1,000,000 visitors • staffing at Forest Service visitor center 363 days a year
- rock art showcased at historic V bar V Ranch • over 45,000 lbs. of trash picked up •
- parking at trail heads • signs repaired or replaced • roads maintained, signed and patched •

- fire prevention patrols • cleanup of dump sites • graffiti removal • forest protection officer patrols •
- Youth Conservation Corps training • Coconino Rural Environmental Corps •
- training and projects • American Conservation Experience training and projects •

- full time volunteer coordinator • visitor service and assistance •
- wildlife habitat restored and protected • 16 toilets cleaned and serviced daily •
- miles of trail maintained • picnicking by Oak Creek at 4 picnic areas •

- scenic protection of Red Rock Crossing, Bell Rock and Cathedral Rock •
- FS participation in Earth Day, National Trails Day and community public land events •
- open and closure of forest roads during mud season • over 60,000 volunteer hours of service •

- 200,000 recreation guides and maps produced for visitors •
- monthly interpretive programs • planning and construction of new trails heads •
- archaeological protection and interpretation at Honanki and Palatki Cultural Sites •

