General Information

Trail Creek Campground is one of 5 campgrounds that lie along the Middle Fork of the Payette River, north of Garden Valley. Units have parking and can accommodate small to medium RV's up to a length of 35 feet. All units have tables, grills and fire pits. The campground was reconstructed in 1998.

This campground has 11 units. Two vault toilets are located within the campground. Drinking water is not available late in the season.

This campground is on the fee system. Fee envelopes and collection boxes are located at the entrance to the campground.

National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS): This campground is not part of the NRRS. Call 1-208-365-7000 for more information.

Travel: Trail Creek Campground is located in southwestern Idaho, 17 miles north of Garden Valley. Take National Forest Road 698 (NF-698) north from Garden Valley. This campground lies next to the junction of NF-698 and NF-671. Watch for recreation signs.

Fishing: The Idaho Department of Fish and Game manages the river fisheries. Fishing is good to excellent most of the year. Fishing occurs from the riverbanks. Whitefish and rainbow trout are the predominate species.

Hunting: Hunting is good on both sides of the river during the legal season. Big game (deer, elk & bear) hunting is best on the higher slopes throughout the surrounding mountains.

Trails: One Spoon Trail, Bear Wallow Trail, Rattlesnake Trail

Recreation sites nearby: Hardscrabble Campground, Rattlesnake Campground

Site Seeing: The area consists of high, forested mountains along the Middle Fork of the Payette River.
