Length: 3.6 miles (5.9 km)

Difficulty

Motorcycle: Most Difficult

Horseback: Most Difficult

Hiking: More Difficult

USGS Maps: Boiling Springs, Six Mile Point, Skunk Creek Summit

Recreation sites nearby: Boiling Springs Campground, Silver Creek Campground, Boiling Springs Guard Station, Middle Fork Payette Trail, East Mountain Way

Attractions and Considerations

This trail leaves the Middle Fork of Payette River and climbs to the ridge between the Middle Fork and the North Fork of the Payette. There are views of Wetfoot Creek and the Middle Fork as the trail ascends, and the timber types change from ponderosa pine to subalpine fir at the upper elevations. The trail is easily accessed from the Boiling Springs Campground or Guard Station. Partway up, the trail intersects a logging road that is open to ATVs and motorcycles but closed to full size vehicles. You will have to use the system road to connect to the upper portion of the trail.

Trail Beginning
