

Raymond J. Horton

Raymond J. Horton of Chewelah died December 15, 2007 after a brief illness due to a fall in Spokane.

Born September 23, 1932 in Watertown, SD, he moved to Chewelah in 2004 from Redding, CA. Raymond retired from the U.S. Forest Service as the Assistant Forest Engineer of The Shasta-Trinity National Forest in 1984 after 32 years of service. He also served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean conflict. Ray is survived by his wife of 45 years, Betty Horton of Chewelah, WA; son James of Chewelah, WA; daughter and son-in-law Kelly and Thomas Hunt of Concord, CA; beloved grandchildren Sean and Alexandra Lomas of Concord, CA; sister Betty Tulowetzke and brother William Horton Jr., both of Watertown, SD; sister-in-law Peggy Popp of Chewelah, WA; and many nieces and nephews, including Susan and Dr. Thomas Boone of Chewelah and Phyllis and Larry Haworth of Spokane.

He was preceded in death by mother Jennie Scott, father William Horton, sisters Myrtle Quade and Rose Reich, and brother Melford. There will be no services.