Lost Johnny Creek Bridge Replaced Today

Abbott Bay on Hungry Horse Reservoir Closed Tuesday and Wednesday

REMINDER: The West-side Hungry Horse Reservoir Road, Forest Road #895, will be closed at Lost Johnny Creek, approximately five miles south of the Hungry Horse Dam, all day today, Monday, August 10, due to a bridge replacement.

Abbott Bay, accessing the east side of Hungry Horse Reservoir located approximately four miles south of Martin City, will be closed on all day Tuesday, August 11 through noon on Wednesday, August 12, for road repairs.

The Flathead National Forest is working in several areas along both the East-side and West-side Hungry Horse Reservoir Roads and travelers are encouraged to contact the Hungry Horse – Glacier View District at 387-3800 for more information.

The Hungry Horse Dam Visitor Center is unaffected by these temporary road closures. The visitor center is open daily, 8am – 4pm, with tours offered regularly. The visitor center may be contacted at 387-5241, x361.
