

Roundy TR. NO. 012

Dixie National Forest, Escalante Ranger District

- General Description: A steep rocky hike from the Pine Creek road to the top of Antone Flat with scenic views into the Death Hollow Wilderness.
- Mileage: 1.9 miles
- Difficulty: Foot: strenuous
Bike: not permitted
Horse: not recommended
OHV: not permitted
- Trailhead access: Graded dirt road, 2 wheel drive
- Elevation loss / gain: 1500 feet
- Water availability: The only water available is from Pine Creek at the beginning of the trail. Bring your own water for day hikes. All water should be filtered or treated before drinking.
- Hazards / obstacles: The trail is very steep and rocky. Sections of the trail can be difficult to follow. Keep an eye out for rock cairns.
- Topo maps: USGS 7.5 minute quads: Escalante

The Trailhead: From Escalante, turn north on the Hells Backbone Road (300 E). At 0.7 miles the road will fork, stay right. After 3.5 miles the road will turn to gravel and is now called Forest Road 153 (FR 153). At 7 miles you enter the Dixie National Forest and the trailhead is on the right.

The Trail: The trail immediately crosses Pine Creek. Most of the time you will have to get your feet wet. The trail follows the fence line and is marked by rock cairns. As you approach the hillside the trail leaves the fence and starts to climb to the northeast. The trail continues to climb until you reach Antone Flat. The trail ends on top of Antone Flat. For a scenic view into the Box-Death Hollow Wilderness cross Antone Flat to the East to the Rim of Death Hollow.
