

TRAILS
MAZATZAL WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 240 miles of “system” trails serving the Mazatzal Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Deadman Trail 25: 5.7 miles long. A significant trail with some steep grades. Crosses Deadman Creek and gains 2,200 feet in elevation in less than 2 miles. Elevation: 3,100 - 5,300 feet. Termini: Trail 89, and Trail 223 (near Mountain Spring).

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
