

TRAILS
FOUR PEAKS WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 40 miles of “system” trails serving the Four Peaks Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Chillicut Trail 132: 3 miles long. The northern two miles is an old jeep road. The Lone Fire has heavily damaged the trail. Elevation: 3600 - 5000 feet. Difficulty Level: More difficult. Use light: Light. Termini: Rock Creek TH.

Use of any mechanized or motorized is prohibited on this trail. No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
