Hunters: Using an Outfitter?? Beware of contracting with an Illegal outfitter for a hunt:

- * You may have no legal claims for injury, damaged property or loss of payment for services.
- *Your hunt may be cancelled in progress if your illegal outfitter is arrested while providing you services.
- *Knowingly contracting with an illegal outfitter could result in felony convictions for all hunters involved. Your guns, equipment, horses, trophies or vehicles could be seized.

ASK TO BE SURE YOUR GUIDE IS PROPERLY LICENSED!

- *Are you registered with the Colorado Office of Outfitters Registration? If so, what is your Colorado Outfitter Registration number?
- *Will we be hunting on Public Land at any time? If so, do you have a Bureau of Land Management or U.S. Forest Service permit to operate on Public Lands?

OTHER INDICATORS:

- *Outfitter refuses to give you a written contract and insists on cash payments.
- *Outfitter counsels you not to talk to federal or state agencies.

Who should I contact if my guide is not properly licensed?
